John F. Bowie
Wm. Marshall.

Thomas Mundell being sworn deposeth as follows, I know the Plaintiff and Defendant, I've known the Plaintiff about fifteen years and the Defendant about ten. Some time about the Month of September or October in the year 1797 I understood from Benoni H. Wade that he had bargained with the Complainant for his, the said Wades Land, called Stoney Harbour. I also understood the same from the Complainant, when I was first informed of the bargain I understood from Wade that the consideration money to be paid for the Land, was one thousand pounds, but I afterwards understood from him that the Complainant having alledged that the Land might fall short of the quantity of Acres, he had supposed it would contain; he the said Wade had consented to take at the rate of five pounds pr. Acre for the Land; that I do not know how much land was sold or when the purchase money was to have been paid. When I first heard of the bargain I understood it was completed, and when I was informed of the change in the consideration, which was to the best of my recollection some time before Christmas in the year 1797. I then understood the bargain to be complete in every respect, except ascertaining the number of acres the making the conveyance and receiving the payment that is I understood that the bargain between the parties was complete, but some time in the Spring of
