The Literary Club on Monday evening had a most interesting program and the attendance was good, quite a number of town people attending. Somehow the impression has prevailed that the meetings were only for members, when it has been the desire of the club that all should feel free to attend. Mrs. Burnite read an instructive paper on Libraries and Dr. M. B. Stephens and Mr E. T. Tubbs gave interesting talks upon their historical subjects. The humorous reading by Miss Blanche Hobbs was thoroughly enjoyed.

The Greensboro Free Press of Friday publishes on its first page a picture of the Brumbaugh store in that place and a photo of the proprietor Mr. A. W. Brumbaugh. Mr. Brumbaugh began his business career in the store of J. H. Nichols of our town, and since going to Greensboro has had as a partner Rev. G. S. Rairigh, also of Denton. Mr. Rairigh has taken no active part in the store work, and has now sold his interest to Mr. Brumbaugh. They have succeeded in building up a good business and Greensboro is fortunate in having so enterprising a young merchant. Mr. Brumbaugh is up to date in the arrangement of his store and the selection of goods and a liberal advertiser in his town paper, all of which go to make success.

Postoffice Robbery At Goldsboro.

A second robbery took place at Goldsboro on Sunday night and the money drawer at the postoffice containing 13 cents was, cleaned out. Two suspects were arrested on Monday afternoon while walking down the railroad track between Greensboro and Ridgely. They gave their names as Reynolds and Davis and claimed Wilmington, Del., as their home. Sheriff Cooper and deputy Temple, made the arrest and brought the prisoners to jail here. On Sunday two men were noticed about the town who seemed to be specially interested in the postoffice, and Monday morning it was found the office had been entered by prying open a window. A wheelwright shop had also been entered and some chisels and wrenches stolen. When the men were arrested a chisel that just fitted into the impressions on the window was found on one of the prisoners, and it was also identified by W. A. Hutson from whose shop it was stolen. The wrenches and other chisel were found in another blacksmith shop.

A postoffice inspector and railroad detective came to town on Tuesday. The detective did not know them, but in a talk with the postoffice man they admitted breaking into the Goldsboro office. Davis said his age was 23 and his home in Philadelphia. Reynolds claimed his home at Aurora, Ill., and gave his age as 26. It is expected that a government officer will call for them in a few days and their case will come up in the United States court.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS
FOR BACKACHE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

A $1000 Verdict.

Mrs. Charles Stevens, of Ridgely, was awarded $1,000 damages against Dr. Guy L. Hunner, of Baltimore, on Wednesday of last week. The action was brought for $30,000 on account of injury to the plaintiffs health by neglect after a serious operation.

The plantiffs were represented by Attorney William Colton, of Baltimore, and Attorney T. Alan Goldsborough, of Denton, and the case consumed about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs Stevenson in the suit complained that pieces of gauze and rubber drain pipe were left in the wound unknown to the patient and several months after returning home they were discovered and were removed by her family physician, Dr. Madara, of Ridgely. She claimed her health had been seriously impaired by the things left in her side and asked for the large amount of damages stated.

The case attracted much attention in the city court and was attended by many noted medical men and nurses, some of whom testified on behalf of Dr. Hunner. The surgeon claimed the mistake was made by a hospital attendant and not by him. The jury however did not clear him of the responsibility and gave a verdict as above stated.

It is said the case will be taken to the Court of Appeals.

Mr. Goldsborough is being congratulated by his friends on his excellent work in the case against the mass of evidence and expert testimony produced by the defense, many of the most prominent surgical experts of the Country being called.

Get your stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels in healthy condition by taking Electric Bitters, and you will not be troubled with the pains of rheumatism. Charles B. Maybe your rheumatic pains come from stomach liver and kidney troubles. Electric Bitters will give you prompt relief. 50c and $1.00. Recommended by All Druggists.

Entertainment at Wholesale Prices.

The line is not analogous to "Hats at Wolesale Prices!" or "House Furnishings at Wholesale Prices," the catch-phrases of the yellow catalogue houses. The corporation behind the Chautauqua was organized not for making money, but for pushing the pet idea of a grand old Methodist preacher. Bishop John H. Vincent worked out a system that would take the monopoly of "going to school" away from the bare-headed Varsity chap, and the besweatered college lass, that would share the enthusiasm of being alive and learning, with older folks who had fresh ambitions and eager wits. The Vincent System, modified and quickened so as to meet the needs of practical, busy people, is now the hobby of a hundred big-brained Americans zealous to do something worth while, besides making a living. In Philadelphia, a half dozen prominent townsmen are members of a no-profit organization that is making Chautauqua possible in towns of this section of the country, Denton, Md., Cambridge, Md., Georgetown, Del., Milford, Del., Dover, Del., Smyrna, Del., Elkton, Md., Parkesburg, Penna., Newton, Pa., Hightstown, N. J., Hammonton, N. J., and Red Bank, N. J., are only a dozen out of a hundred towns that will have one solid week of lectures, concerts, recitals,—sheer fun furnished by the talent that this organization sends out. In every town there will be a stirring talk by a noted statesman, Senator Gore, Governor Hadley, or Governor Glenn. There will be a talk by a noted churchman, Dr. Hillis, Dr. Cadman, or Dr. Waters. In every town, a great Italian band, a company of Swiss Mountain Singers, a quartet, a juggler, magicians, readers, impersonators, soloists, a violinist,—each will have something inspiring or purely recreational to offer the crowd.

Enertainment at Wholesale Prices, the legitimate slogan of the managing committees, is the outcome first, of capital invested on the no-dividend basis; second, of talent services purchased by the season, and not by the day; third, of the elimination of waste mileage. The towns of the Chautauqua Chain are strung so close together that the entertainers whose expenses are paid by the Association, may easily get from place to place in the time that it takes to eat a good dinner, and at the price that it takes to pay for a poor one.

The Commonwealth Male Quartet

AT THE 1913 CHAUTAUQUA.

Each one of the four takes a singer's pride in exploiting his big, flexible voice. They give us crooning quartets with banjo accompaniment, shouting quartets with extravagant pantomine, patriotic quartets in colonial costume, humorous quartets with mimicry and imitation. They give us splendid solos and duets. But their talents are not even yet exhausted. The first tenor is a pianist, and the baritone a dramatic reader. Mr. Carpenter's impersonation of "Uncle Billy" has invariably been given special comment by the press. All in all, it is small wonder to the Chautauqua Association that it took such a strenuous campaign to steal this troupe away from its usual round of "big town" engagements. However, for this season the most versatile quartet on the road will furnish more than an evening's share of merriment to the summer assemblies.

THE INCOMPARABLE SCRAPPERS.

The bloody strife's ended,
How long none can tell;
That is there's a halt
In what Sherman called "hell"
No doubt they'll be at it
Again very soon,
Those Mexican outlaws
Maybe before noon.
A queer bunch of people
They may any day
Break out in revolt,
Take up arms for a fray;
Destroy their own cities
With torch shell and shot,
Imprison their rulers,
Or shoot the whole lot.
They'll scrap about nothing,
Or any old thing,
The theft of a bronco,
Sandwitch or harpstring;
The next thing to guzzlin'
Down booze, is a fight
And little they care
If they be wrong or right.
The upshot of all this
Uprising will place
Our Uncle where he'll have
To annex the race;
Take over their holdings,
Guard all their old pelf,
'Til Mexico's fitted
To govern herself.
We've burdens enough of
That kind of our own,
We'd rather just leave the
Old Empire alone,
And let them work out their
Home problems while we
Keep at our own job on
The Isle's in the sea.

An Early Easter.

Easter will come unusually early this year. It falls on March 23rd. Hardly any one now living, even babes in arms, will see it come so early again. Easter Sunday is regulated by the time the moon is full after the days and nights are equal. The sun crosses the line on March 21st, and Easter comes on the first Sunday after the days and nights are equal. In 1913 the moon is full the day after the days and nights are equal, and the next day is Sunday, which brings Easter on the 23rd of the month. If the moon should happen to be full on the day previous to that on which the days and nights are equal, it will not be full again for twenty-eight days, and that would make Easter Sunday come quite late in April, especially should the moon in such a case be full on Monday. Easter could not be until the Sunday following, and in such a case it could come as late as April. It came on this very late date something like thirty years ago, and may not do so again for a number of years. It has been a saying among men who were close observers that we need not expect much spring weather until after Easter Sunday. If the old saying is true, in 1913 we shall have an early spring. Old residents who have watched such matters closely tell us that when Easter is very early the season is not a productive one. They say frosts and heavy rains, as well as extreme dry weather, often prevent the growing of large crops. Many observing farmers say they would rather see an Easter about the middle of April.

HOW FAR IS WEST DENTON?

Not So Far That the Statements Of Its Residents Cannot Be Verified.

Rather an interesting case has been developed over in West Denton. Being so near by, it is well worth publishing here. The statement is sincere—the proof convincing.

D. J. Willoughby, River Road, W. Denton, Md., says:

"In 1907 I allowed my name to be used publicly recommending Doan's Kidney Pills and today I can say that my opinion of this remedy is not changed. For years I was afflicted with kidney complaint. I suffered from an almost constant ache and weakness in my back, which interfered with my work. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular, sometimes profuse and then scanty and contained sediment. I used many remedies in the hope of correcting these disorders but nothing gave me relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the Douglas Drug Store (now Duffey's Pharmacy.) This remedy strengthened my kidneys wonderfully, and disposed of the backache. I never hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to persons I hear complaining, and I know of several cures that have been made by their use."
