Dent in his life time, and the said Walter since the death of the said George and also since the death of the said Hannah with whom he was administrator as aforesaid, did assume upon themselves and promise in manner and form as the aforesaid Rositer above hath complained, and they assess the damages of the said Rositer sustained by occasion of the nonperformance of the promises and assumptions aforesaid to the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds current money. Therefore it is considered by the court here, that the said Rositer recover against the said Walter administrator as aforesaid, as well the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds current money his damages aforesaid by the jurors aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed to be sustained by occasion of the nonperformance of the promises and assumptions aforesaid, as the sum of eight hundred and sixty four pounds of Tobacco for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended: to be levied of the goods and chattels which were of the said George Dent at the time of his death in the hands of the said Walter to be administered, if so much thereof in his hands to be administered he hath; and if so much thereof in his hands to be administered he hath not, then to be levied of the proper goods and chattels of the said Walter: and the said Walter in mercy &c. &c.

Memorandum. This Judgment was rendered subject to such award as should be made by Philip Moore.

And thereupon the said Walter Simpson by his attornies aforesaid prays an appeal from the judgment aforesaid so as aforesaid rendered, to the General Court of the State of Maryland to be held for the Western Shore; and it is granted to him: whereupon the said Walter by his attornies aforesaid, files in court here a certain writing obligatory commonly called an Appeal bond; which being read and heard, the securities in the same are by the court here approved: which said bond is contained in the words following, to wit: Know all men by these presents, that we Walter Simpson, Abner Neal & James Chalmers

all of Baltimore county and State of Maryland are held and firmly bound unto Rositer Scott in the full and just sum of five hundred pounds current money, to be paid to the said Rositer Scott his certain attorney, executors, administrators or assigns: for which payment well and truly to be made and done, we bind ourselves and each of us, and every of us, our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators for and in the whole jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals and dated this tenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four. Whereas the said Rositer Scott at Baltimore county court at February Term last did obtain a judgment against the said Walter Simpson as Executor of George Dent for the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds current money damages and costs of suit: And whereas the said Walter Simpson is about to appeal on said judgment to the General court. Now the condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bounden Walter Simpson shall pursue the directions of the act of assembly, entitled "an act for regulating writs of error and granting appeals to and from the courts of common law, within the province", at the next General court ensuing, and also prosecute the same appeal, and also satisfy and pay unto the said Rositer Scott his executors, administrators or assigns in case the said judgment should be affirmed, as well all and singular the Debt, Damages and costs adjudged by the said County Court, as also all costs and damages that shall be awarded by the said General Court; then this bond to be and remain in full force and virtue, otherwise of no effect.

Signed, Sealed and Delivered in the presence of Sa. Gould.

Walter Simpson (L.S.)
Abner Neal (L.S.)
James Chalmers (L.S.)

Whereupon it was ordered by the Court here, that the Record and proceedings aforesaid in the plea aforesaid with all things thereunto relating be transmitted to the said General court; and the same are transmitted accordingly
