At which said second Tuesday of May being the eighth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four aforesaid, came into the said General Court aswell the said Walter Simpson surviving administrator as aforesaid by Walter Dorney his attorney, as the said Rositer Scott by Thomas Hell his attorney; and thereupon on motion of the said Rositer Scott by his attorney aforesaid it was ruled by the said General Court that the said Walter Simpson administrator as aforesaid assign the errors in the record and proceedings of the judgment aforesaid brought before the said General Court for correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or judgment by the said court would be entered against him in default thereof: whereupon the said Walter Simpson administrator as aforesaid by his attorney aforesaid, prayed that a day might be given him for the assignment of errors of and upon the record and proceedings of the judgment aforesaid, until the second Tuesday of October then next; and to him it was granted: the same day was given to the said Rositer Scott then, &c.

At which said second Tuesday of October being the ninth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, which said day was given to the said Walter Simpson administrator as aforesaid for the assignment of errors of and upon the record and proceedings of the judgment aforesaid, came again into the said General Court the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid; and the said Walter Simpson administrator as aforesaid by his attorney aforesaid, said that in the record and proceedings aforesaid, and also in the giving of judgment aforesaid there was manifest error in this, to wit, that by the record and proceedings aforesaid it appeared that the judgment aforesaid in the plea aforesaid given, was given for the said Rositer Scott against the said Walter Simpson administrator as aforesaid, when by the law of the land that judgment ought to have been given for the said Walter Simpson administrator as aforesaid against the said Rositer Scott, therefore in that there was manifest error, and he prayed that the judgment aforesaid for those errors and others being in the record and proceedings aforesaid might be reversed, annulled and held entirely as void, and that he the said Walter Simpson administrator as aforesaid might be restored to all which he had lost by occasion of the said judgment, and that the said Rositer Scott might rejoin to the errors aforesaid &c. And the said Rositer Scott by his attorney aforesaid said there was no error in the record and proceedings aforesaid, or in the rendition of the judgment aforesaid, and prayed likewise that the said general court might proceed to the examination aswell of the record and proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid by the said Walter Simpson administrator as aforesaid above for error assigned, and that the said judgment might be in all things affirmed, &c. But because the said general court were not advised to give their judgment of and upon the premises, a day therefore was given to the parties aforesaid before the said General Court until the second Tuesday of May then next, to hear their judgment of and upon the premises because the said court were thereof not advised, &c.

At which said second Tuesday of May being the fourteenth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, came again into the said General Court the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid: But because the said general court were not then advised to give their judgment of and upon the premises, a day therefore was further given to the said parties before the said General Court until the second Tuesday of October then next to hear their judgment of and upon the said premises, because the said court were thereof not then advised &c.

At which said second Tuesday of October being the eighth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, came again into the said General Court the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid: But because the said general court were not then advised to give their judgment of and upon the premises, a day therefore was further given to the said parties before the said Court until the second Tuesday of May then next, to hear their judgment of and upon the said premises, for that the said court were thereof not then advised, &c.

And at this day, to wit, the third monday in June