from three shillings and nine pence to four shilling and six pence per Cord

Adjourned to saturday next the 22d Instant ten O'clock

Baltimore 22d September 1804

The defendant not agreeably to adjournment. the Complainants not meeting adjourned to this day two weeks ten O'clock

Baltimore 6th October 1804

Defendants not agreeably to adjournment

Cornelius Hall produced on the part of the defendant and being duly sworn, answers to the fourth Interrogatory that it appears from the accounts with the receipts thereon, that John Pickel then deputy Collector for this deponent, Collected from Edward Norwood the defendant the sum of Eight pounds three shilling and eleven pence half penny for the years seventeen hundred and ninety eight and seventeen hundred and ninety nine on the lands mentioned in said Interrogatory

John Parbridge produced on the part of the Defendant being previously sworn answers to the 1st Interrogatory that he knows the land mentioned in this Interrogatory and has known them about thirty years

2d answers, the lands since the decease of Nicholas Norwood, he supposes would rent for about fifty pounds p annum undivided, he thinks Nicholas Norwood died in the year seventeen hundred and eighty seven

3d The deponent says that Andrew Norwood with his two daughters two of the Complainants

lived on the premises she believes subsisted on the profits arising therefrom from the death of Nicholas Norwood to the time of her death. he believes she died eight years last February she occupied the same about eight years, they did not pay anyrent to the defendant to this deponents knowledge

4th the lands were assessed to Edward and Samuel Norwood by this deponent when assessed but does not know who paid the assessment nor the amount

5th This deponent says that during the time the land was in possession of the defendant he the deponent had some nails manufactured but does not know the quantity, the nails are worth six shillings p Hundred manufacturing he does not know the yearly acquires while in the possession of the Defendant he believes the defendant had the lands in possession about eight years

To the 6th Interrogatory answers that there was a law suit between the defendant and Josias Brown and that he this deponent as executor of Josias Brown received between eighty and ninety pounds on account of said law suit

7th answers there were two log houses built by the defendant on the plantation and he supposes they were both worth about forty dollars, this Deponent cannot say the plantation was preserved to advantage but was kept in as good order as it was before

8th answers that the defendant had a Commission to establish the bounds of said land but does not know the expence, the Commission was not returned

9th answers, as they are now divided on third would he believes, not rent for more than about seventeen pounds p annum

10th answer he does not know that there was any waste Committed while in the possession of the defendant