character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; And the said Spencer Mitchell on his solemn Oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God declares in Court here that he will support the constitution of the United States, and that he doth absolutely and entirely and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to whom he was heretofore a subject; and the said Spencer Mitchell also declares in Court here that he has never borne any hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of Nobility in any country whatever. The Court here thereupon admits the said Spencer Mitchell to become a citizen of the said United States in conformity to an act of the Congress of the United States passed on the fourteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and two, entitled "an act to establish an uniform rule of Naturalization, and to repeal the acts heretofore passed on that subject."

Be it remembered, that on this seventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, Elijah Paine a native of England and subject of the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland appears in Court here and exhibits his petition in writing praying to be admitted to become a Citizen of the United States; and it appears to the satisfaction of the Court here that the said Elijah Paine was a resident within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States previous to the fourteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and two, and that he has resided ever since in the United States and within the State of Maryland; and that during that period he has behaved as a man of good moral character attached to the principles of the constitution of the United States and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and the said Elijah Paine on his solemn oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God declares in Court here that he will support the Constitution of the United States and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to whom he was heretofore a subject. And the said Elijah Paine also declares in Court here that he has never borne any hereditary title or been of any of the orders of Nobility in any Country whatever.

The Court here thereupon admits the said Elijah Paine to become a Citizen of the said United States in conformity to an act of the Congress of the United States passed on the fourteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and two, entitled, "an act to establish an uniform rule of Naturalization, and to repeal the acts heretofore passed on that subject."

Ordered, That all Appeals and Writs of Error standing under rule argument in this Court, excepting those from Baltimore and Harford Counties and Appeals from the Court of Chancery, be heard the first week of each term, and that after the first week of the term, appeals and writs of error from Baltimore and Harford counties and appeals from the Court of Chancery be heard the remainder of the term.

William Norris jun^r vs Charles S. Perrie	Be it remembered, that heretofore, to wit, on the fifteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, William Norris junior by Alexander Contee Magruder his attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of appeals here, the writ of the State of Maryland of Venditioni Exponas, directed to the late Sheriff of Prince George's County, in the words and of the tenor following, to wit: Maryland, Sc^t The State of Maryland to John Darnall Esquire late Sheriff of Prince George's County, Greeting: Whereas at a county court begun and held at Upper Marlborough Town in and for Prince George's County on the first monday in April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ten, a certain William Norris Junior by the Judgment of the said Court recovered against a certain Charles S. Perrie late of Prince George's County merchant, aswell the sum of twelve hundred Dollars current money for his damages, which he had sustained by reason of the non performance of a certain promise and assumption to the said William Norris Junior by the said Charles S. Perrie before ~~that time~~ made, as the sum of six dollars and seventy six cents and two thirds of a cent for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended whereof the said Charles S. Perrie is convict, as by inspecting the record of proceedings, brought before the Court of appeals for the Western Shore at the City Annapolis by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears: And whereas it was adjudged in the said Court of appeals at the City of Annapolis aforesaid on the third Monday in December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eleven, that the said Judgment, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said William
