Norris junior might have execution against the said Charles S. Perrie for as well the [illegible], damages, costs and charges aforesaid as adjudged unto him in the said County Court, as also for the sum of ten dollars and forty one cents for his damages, costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid by means of the prosecuting a certain writ of the said State by the said Charles S. Perrie before the said Court of appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises, whereof the said Charles S. Perrie is convict as of record it likewise appeareth; for which said damages, costs and charges the said Charles S. Perrie and certain Richard Skinner and Patrick Dent on the fourteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve before James G. Wood and Robert W. Bowie Esquires two of the Justices of the peace of the said State for Prince George's aforesaid did confess judgment to the said William Norris Junior: the said damages, costs and charges aforesaid to be levied of their bodies, goods or chattels, lands or tenements for the use of the said William Norris junior in case the said Charles S. Perrie should not pay and satisfy to the said William Norris Junior the said damages, costs and charges so as aforesaid recovered against them with the additional costs thereon on the fourteenth day of August then next following, according to the act of assembly in such case made and provided; which said confession in form aforesaid taken was by the same Justices returned to the said Court of appeals, and whereof the said Charles S. Perrie, Richard Skinner and Patrick Dent are convict as of Record is manifest. And whereas also on the twenty second day of october in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, you were commanded, that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said Charles S. Perrie, Richard Skinner and Patrick Dent, being in your bailiwick, you should cause to be made the damages, costs and charges aforesaid; and that you should have those sums before the said Court of appeals to be held at the City of annapolis on the first monday in December then next, to render unto the said William Norris Junior the damages, costs and charges aforesaid: On which said first monday in December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve you made return to the said Court of appeals that by virtue of the said writ to you directed for that purpose you had taken one House and lot in the town of Nottingham together with an adjoining lot known by the name of Honicks lot of the lands and tenements of the said Charles S. Perrie, in your bailiwick, being to satisfy unto the said William Norris Junior the damages, costs and charges aforesaid in the said writ mentioned; which said lands & tenements remained in your hands unsold for want of bidders, so that the said damages, costs and charges you could not have as you were by the said writ commanded. Therefore you are hereby commanded, that the said lands and tenements so as aforesaid taken, you expose to sale, and the money therefrom arising you have before the said Court of appeals to be held at the city of annapolis on the first monday in December next, to render unto the said William Norris Junior the damages, costs and charges aforesaid, and ~~also~~ such costs as have accrued on the said writ of fierifacias; and how you shall execute this writ you make appear unto the said Court of appeals at the place and on the day aforesaid; and have you then and there this writ. Witness the honourable Jeremiah Townley Chase, Esquire, Chief Judge of the said Court of appeals, the thirty first day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen
