with all the requisites agreeably to acts of Assembly might obtain a grant of Confirmation thereon and according ly a warrant on the twenty fifth day of November seventeen hundred and eighty five unto him for that purpose did issue. In pursuance whereof it was certified into the Land office that only part of the said tract was resurveyed to having Resurveyed away a part of the said land which part so resurveyed was found to contain fifteen hundred and seventeen acres and thirty two perches to which there was added two hundred and thirty one acres and eighty perches of Vacant land and the said Samuel Owings having pursuant to acts of Assembly paid to the Treasurer of the Western Shore the sum of Eighty nine pounds eight shillings and nine pence Current Money the Caution dad for the said Vacant land and one pounds fifteen shillings and three pence for some Improvements thereon. The State of Maryland doth hereby grant and confirm unto him the said Samuel Owings his part of the aforesaid tract of land resurveyed as aforesaid with the vacancy added and called by every thing need fae corrected lying in Baltimore County aforesaid and in fee separate and distinct parts for the first part. Beginning at a bounded white Oak and a bounded Water Oak standing on a hill at the end of the fourth line of the original tract and running thence south thirteen degrees East eighteen perches perches until it intersects the south Eighty degrees West fifty five perches line of a tract of land called Alface then bounding on said line south Eighty degrees West forty two perches to the end thereof then still bounding on said land south ten degrees east seventy six perches then south seventy three degrees and thirty minutes West ten perches north ten degrees West seventy six perches south seventy degrees West thirty five perches south seven degrees east sixty perches south eighty three degrees east nine perches to the beginning line of a tract of land called Johns beginning then south twenty five degrees east twelve perches south seventy degrees West forty six perches south forty three degrees West twenty five perches north West thirty five perches south forty three degrees West twenty three perches until it intersects the seventh line of the original tract bounding on the original tract north West four perches and to the end of the south East forty eight perches line of a tract of land called Lardin then bounding on said land north forty three degrees east sixty six perches still bounding on the general line of said land south seventy five degrees East thirty nine perches to the beginning ground thereof still bounding on said land north four degrees West six perches south sixty nine degrees West fifty perches south five West eighty perches until it intersects the seventh line of the original tract then bounding on said line south East sixty four perches to the end thereof then still bounding on the original tract south twenty three degrees and thirty minutes West two perches then south East nine perches south twenty three degrees and thirty minutes West one hundred and forty eight perches and half a perch until it intersects the north forty degrees West sixty perches line of a tract of land called Stansburys Prospect then bounding on said land north forty degrees West thirty three perches until it intersects the general line of a tract of land called Wind fall then bounding on said line reversly north fifty eight degrees East twenty perches to the end of the last line of the aforesaid tract of land called Wind fall then still bounding on said land reversly the two following Courses north twenty seven degrees West forty eight perches south seventy five degrees West four perches until it intersects the north twenty seven degrees West forty eight perches line of the original tract then bounding on the original tract north twenty seven degrees West twenty perches to the end of said line still running with and bounding on the original tract north twenty four degrees east seventy five perches north eighty four degrees West twenty eight perches to a bounded white Oak and hickory standing on the north side of a hill then north thirty four degrees east eighty seven south forty six degrees east fourteen perches north forty degrees east eighty perches south seventy six degrees east forty perches north forty four degrees and thirty minutes east fifty three perches and half a perch until it intersects the last line of a tract of land called Ingarkan then bounding on said line south forty four degrees east eleven perches to the end thereof still bounding on the general line of said land north sixty three degrees east fifteen perches to the beginning