perches north twenty degrees west fifty six perches south sixty two degrees west sixty eight perches north twenty seven degrees west twenty two perches north seventy four degrees west fifty perches to two bounded black Oaks still bounding on the original the eight following courses south fifty degrees west forty six perches south forty three degrees west one hundred and seventy eight perches south six teen degrees east forty perches south one degree east thirty eight perches south twenty degrees west fifty six perches north one eighty perches north eight degrees east eighty six perches south eighty eight degrees west sixty seven perches to a bounded white Oak and spanish Oak standing on the west side of a hill still bounding on the original north twenty four degrees east forty two perches north ten degrees east thirty four perches north fifty eight degrees east forty eight perches north five degrees east one hundred and fifteen perches north forty six degrees east twenty nine perches north fifty five degrees east one hundred and thirty two perches north thirty five degrees west forty eight perches to a bounded spanish Oak still bounding on the original south Eighty nine degrees west thirty perches south thirty nine degrees west twenty eight perches south seventy degrees west twenty six perches south fifty three degrees west thirty one perches south twelve degrees west thirty perches south west forty perches south forty degrees west sixty four perches until it intersects the south thirteen perches line of a tract of land called Stoney Valley enlarged then reversing said line and bounding thereon north four perches to the beginning thence still reversing said line and bounding thereon the four following courses north forty degrees west fifty four perches north two degrees west twenty eight perches north thirty six degrees east sixty four perches north fourteen degrees east twenty eight perches to the beginning trees of said land still bounding on the given line of said land north twenty six degrees east eighteen perches then north sixty one degrees west one perch until it intersects the second line of a tract of land called Polens Choice then reversing said land and bounding thereon north thirty degrees east fifty six perches until it intersects the east line of the original tract then running with and bounding on the original north fifty five degrees west forty five perches to the end of the south seventy degrees east fifty three perches line of a tract of land called Stoney Valley enlarged then bounding on said line reversely north seventy degrees west fifty three perches to the beginning of said line then north eighty six degrees and thirteen perches north fifty five degrees west six perches and then with a straight line to the beginning containing and laid out for one thousand five hundred and seventy three acres and one quarter of an acre, for the fourth part. Beginning at the end of the south twenty two degrees east twenty four perches line of a tract of land called Winchester Bo and running thence south four degrees east nineteen perches until it intersects the south forty degrees west thirty six perches line of the original tract then bounding on the original reversely north forty degrees east twenty three perches then south eighty nine degrees and thirty minutes east seven perches north twenty two degrees west three perches and a half perch until it intersects a tract of land called Little Bedford and then with a straight line to the beginning containing and laid out for one acre and one eighth of an acre, for the fifth part beginning at the end of the east line of the aforesaid tract of land called worms and running thence reversing with said line and bounding thereon north forty nine degrees east one hundred and eleven perches until it intersects the south nine degrees west one hundred and fifty perches line of the original tract then south nine degrees west twelve perches to the end thereof still bounding on the original south forty seven degrees west one hundred and twenty one perches and a half of a perch until it intersects the given line of the aforesaid tract of land called Worms and then with a straight line to the beginning containing and laid out for six acres which said five parcels of land being added together make the quantity of one thousand seven hundred and fifty five acres and one hundred and twelve square perches more or less according to the certificate of resurvey thereof taken and returned to the Land Office bearing date the fourteenth day of November seventeen hundred and eighty six and there remaining Together together with all rights, profits, benefits and privileges thereunto belonging. To have and To hold the same