legacies — and the Testator did further declare that nothing contained in the Codicil should extend or be deemed to extend to alter or diminish or in any manner affect the several legacies, sum or sums of money which were given or bequeathed to his said daughters or either of them, but that the same should remain to all intents and purposes, as if the Codicil had not been made, any thing contained therein to the contrary notwithstanding; all of which will fully and particularly appear by a Copy of said Codicil herewith filed, and which your Orator prays may be deemed and taken as part of this bill of complaint.

Your Complainant states that the Well legacies bequeathed as aforesaid amount to the sum of nine thousand pounds Sterling, and the codicil to three thousand six hundred pounds Sterling, in all Twelve thousand six hundred pounds Sterling equal to Twenty one thousand pounds current money — that the amount of the personal Estate as returned by the Inventory, amounted to the sum of Ten thousand four hundred and seventy nine pounds Ten Shillings current money, as returned on the Twenty seventh July seventeen hundred and seventy nine and on the Twenty third april seventeen hundred and ninety five the Executors returned an account of Debts collected to the amount of fifty hundred and Eight pounds twelve Shillings and Eight pence current money — that by the account settled on the fourteenth november seventeen hundred and Eighty nine the Executor had credit or was allowed for payments of debts amounting to eleven hundred and fifty three pounds Sixteen Shillings and three pence one farthing and on the Twenty third April seventeen hundred and ninety five for the additional sum of seven hundred and Eighty six pounds one Shilling and one penny three farthings as will fully appear by copies of the Inventory and accounts herewith filed and which your complainant prays may be deemed part of his bill and Exhibits No 2. 3. 4. 5 —

had

Your Complainant further represents, that after the death of the said Caleb Dorsey, Charles Ridgely and Rebecca his wife, Michael Sue and Mary his wife, William Goodwin and Milcah his wife, William Buchanan and Peggy his wife, the legatees aforesaid, and their husbands and the said Samuel Dorsey and his wife petitioned the Legislature of Maryland for the sale of the furnace Works and Lands at Curtis's Creek purchased of the said Alexander Lawson for the sale of the Lands devised as aforesaid for the payment of the debts and legacies aforesaid to wit, the Land called "Calebs Delight" "Enlarged" "Timber Ridge" part of the "Mill Frog" part of the Furnace and works at Curtis's Creek, and that a Law passed for that purpose directing the Lands to be sold and the manner and terms of sale as will appear by a copy of said Law herewith filed Exhibit No which your Complainant prays may be deemed and taken as part of this bill of complaint — That under and in virtue