Two shillings and nine pence allowed the said Trustee increased the claim against your complainant to four thousand four hundred and ninety Two pounds seven shillings and Ten pence Current money which was paid out of the money raised by the sales of the Lands aforesaid as will fully appear by the proceedings aforesaid before exhibited.

Your Complainant should have before stated that the said Edward Dorsey made a will and appointed Elizabeth Dorsey and Robert Dorsey his Executors who have in due form of Law administered.

Your Complainant states that he is advised that the Land devised as aforesaid to his Father Samuel Dorsey, by the will of his Father Caleb Dorsey before exhibited, except that part particularly mentioned as a fund for the payment of his legacies, was not answerable for the will legacies, and that before the will legacies were to have been paid, all the debts should have been discharged, and the legatees in the Will named were only entitled to the payment of their legacies out of the residue of the personal estate and of the Lands devised for their payment after the debts were discharged -

That the devisees Samuel and Edward Dorsey were not answerable for the debt due Alexander Lawson ~~without obtaining the~~ Lands and premises purchased of him, but as the said Lands and premises were sold and the money applied to discharge the legacies and in as much as the application of the said money to the payment of Lawsons debt

would

would have discharged the same, by which the Land descended to your Orator would not have been decreed to be sold, and because the said Edward Dorsey admitted your Complainant to be answerable for the half of said debt and because he being a Trustee purchased in the aforesaid Lands, relief can be obtained in this Court by vacating the sales made by the Trustee aforesaid particularly so far as he was concerned in the purchase of the same and by compelling him to account for the rents and profits arising from the same

In consideration of which and to the end that the said Mary Dorsey, Priscilla Dorsey Nell Dorsey Hammond Dorsey Caroline Dorsey the heirs of the said Edward Dorsey and the said William Goodwin, and Milcah Dorsey, and Eleanor Dorsey surviving Executors of Caleb Dorsey, and the said Elizabeth Dorsey and Robert Dorsey of Baltimore County, and the said Samuel Godman of Anne Arundel County may on oath full true and perfect answers make to all and singular the premises as fully and particularly as if the same were again repeated and them thereto interrogated, and more particularly that they may set forth and discover whether the said Caleb Dorsey did not make the will and appointed the Executors as aforesaid; whether he did not make the contract with Lawson as stated at the time and for the sum ~~that the grounds aforesaid~~ For or at what time and for