intended to go to India at all. The Deponent had some conversation with the said James Ray relative to a ship at Charleston which the Deponent had been informed by his brother in Law James Rivington Junior was for sale, but the said James Ray declined having any thing to do with it.

To the 4th Interr. he saith that he did hear the said James Ray say that he had an intention or wish to purchase Lands in this Country but does not recollect to have heard any Mention ~~made~~ of his intention to go to India.

To the 5th Interr. he saith that he did not know the said James Ray to have been guilty of any act of dishonesty in the City of New York.

August C. Van Horn

Taken before
Thomas Cooper
Danl Mc Cormick
W. S. Smith
} Commissioners

James Rivington Junior being sworn saith
To the 1st Interr. he saith that he knows the Defendant James Ray and hath known him since the Year One Thousand Seven hundred and ninety five when he arrived in this country.

To the 2d Interr. he saith that he hath seen a letter brought by the said James Ray to the Deponents Father from Captain Robert Rivington

To the 3d Interr. he saith that the said James Ray told the Deponent that he had a Credit of Ten or fifteen thousand pounds Sterling money of Great Britain on Joshua Waddington of the City of New York merchant, but the

Deponent

Deponent never heard the said James Ray say nor did he ever understand from him that he had brought a large sum of money with him to this Country or any other valuable property whatever to this Deponents recollection. the Deponent has no recollection of ever having heard from the said James Ray that he intended to go to India nor did he ever ~~[illegible]~~ desire the Deponent to buy a ship for him in Charleston. that the Deponent being in Charleston some time in the year One Thousand ~~Seven hundred~~ and ninety five wrote a letter to his ~~brother in~~ Law Augustus C Van Horn informing him that there was a ship for sale in Charleston and requested him to mention it to the said James Ray and that the said Van Horne informed the Deponent that the said James Ray declined purchasing the same.

To the 4th Interr. he saith that he never heard the said James Ray say that he meant to buy some Lands in America before he left it for India he did however hear him say that he meant to buy a small farm here but made no mention of any intention of going to India

To the 5th Interr. he saith that he did not know the said James Ray while he resided in New York to be guilty of any act of dishonesty

Sa^l Rivington

Taken before
Thomas Cooper.
Daniel Mc Cormick
W. S. Smith