you collect that his general character is bad as to veracity, morality and fair dealing? & relate the particulars thereof.

2d In what instance or instances did the said Ray violate his veracity where you was concerned, and at what time.

3d What breach or breaches of morality did the said Ray commit in his transactions with you? and when.

4th In what instance or instances did the said Ray act towards you with unfairness of dealing and when.

5th What person or persons were privy to or Witnesses of the several transactions between the said Ray and yourself.

L Martin for Jas Ray

An additional Interrogatory to be put on the part of the said James Ray to James Rivington heretofore examined.

1st Do you know whether Captain Robert Rivington hath resided any length of time in the East Indies, and if so how long?

2d Whether or not is he considered a man of integrity, and one on whose recommendations reliance may be placed.

L Martin for Jas Ray.

Thomas Cooper
Daniel M'Cormick
W. T. Smith
} Commissioners.

On the part of the Defendant James Ray.

Depositions of Witnesses sworn and examined on the 26th March 1802 at the Office of Thomas Cooper Esquire, situate in Wall Street in the City of New York by virtue of a Commission issuing out of the High Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland to us Thomas Cooper, Daniel M'Cormick and William T. Smith directed, for the examination of witnesses in a cause there depending between William Campbell William Bayley and Charles Wayman Complainants and James Ray and William Duncanson Defendants. on the part and behalf of James Ray one of the Defendants upon additional Cross Interrogatories exhibited on the part of the said James Ray.

(of)

The Deposition of George Lewis to the additional Cross Interrogatories exhibited on the part of the Defendant James Ray.

To the first Interrogatory he saith that he doth not recollect exactly how long the said James Ray resided in the City of New York but to the best of his recollection believes it was about six months.

To the second Interrogatory he saith that he did not hear any unfavorable accounts of the character of the said James Ray until after he left the City of New York. – That he hath heard unfavorable accounts of the said James Rays character from several persons, particularly of his conduct in the East Indies, and his reputation was spoken ill of generally by those with whom he was acquainted

To the third Interrogatory he saith that the general reputation of the said James Ray is bad in every place from which the Deponent hath had any accounts of him.

To the fourth Interrogatory the deponent saith that the said James Ray is generally reputed to have behaved bad in the City of

New