surveys made by Col Cresap for Governor Bladen till that time and being further interrogated whether when this deponant received those certificates from Col Cresap which Col Cresap called the last of Bladens certificates whether this deponant was informed or had reason and what reason to believe that Col Cresap had in in his hands any certificate of survey made made by him for Governor Bladen prior to those of which he gave him the certificates to bring down to the Land office answered. he does not believe he had any because Col Cresap used to communicate most of his Surveyors business to this deponant and never heard him say he had any other certificates or surveys made for Mr Bladen which had not been returned this deponant apprehends that all the surveys that were made prior to those which he returned into the Land office were returned into the Land office by Col Cresap himself before that time And being further interrogated whether this deponant knows or has any reason to believe that any surveys were made for Mr Bladen by any person whatever than those made by this deponant while he was a pistant to Col Cresap as Deputy Surveyor of the Back parts of Prince Georges County answer he does not believe that any Surveys were made for Mr Bladen by any other person that this deponant while Col Cresap was deputy Surveyor and being further interrogated what this deponant did with those certificates delivered him by Col Cresap to be returned into the Land office and what.

conversation paped between this deponant and Mr Bladen afterwards relating to the Execution of Mr Bladens. warrants which were put in Col Cresaps hands answer this deponant returned those certificates which he received from Col Cresap into the Land office and took a receipt — for them according to Col Cresaps Instructions to this deponant which he did and delivered the said receipt to Col Cresap the next morning after delivering the certificates into the Land office this deponant waited on Mr Bladen who asked him if he knew what Cresap had done with his certifica =tes he this deponant told him that he believed they were all returned now for this deponant had returned a parcel the evening before to the office Mr Bladen seemed in a passion and said is this all the thanks I get from Cresap for giving him the Surveyors place to have my business delayed till this time for if they had been returned sooner there are several fees. I needed not have paid which I shall have to pay now. and being further Interrogated what this deponant meant by the words all returned now in his answer to Mr Bladens answer The deponant then to be the certificates of the last work done by Col Cresap for Mr Bladen during the time of Cold Cresaps being Deputy Surveyor and being further Interrogated whether this deponant by the words they are all returned now in his answer to Mr Bladen did not also mean that those were the last certificate of all the Surveys made by Col Cresap for Mr Bladen which were to be returned as well as those this deponant returned himself into the Land office for the last of the Surveys or work that was done by Col Cresap for Mr Bladen
