June Term 1818

3. Do you know the tracts of land called "Browns Plague", "Spring Garden" and "The Resurvey on Mollys Industry" that were owned by the said Valentine Flegle, and do you know or have you ever heard he held any other land?

4th When did the first wife of the said Valentine Flegle die? and was not his daughters or some of them and which then named?

5th Do you know or have you ever heard and from whom that the said Valentine Flegle caused his said land to be surveyed and division made for the purpose of giving to the complainants parts thereof and that he caused stones to be set up at the respective divisions?

6th was not the said land surveyed at the instance of the complainants or some of them, by whom was it surveyed, and when, and was the said Valentine Flegle present, relate all your knowledge respecting the said survey?

7th When did Valentine Flegle one of the Complainants marry how long did he live on the land after he married and when did he move off?

8th Do you know or have you ever heard and from whom that a house was built on the land of Valentine the father by Valentine the son, was it a log house, and what became of it when the son moved away?

9th Do you know of any other improvements made on the land by Valentine the son, what were they?

10th Do you know that Charles Flegle one of the complainants after he married lived on the land and was any improvements and what were they made by him? relate your knowledge on the subject.

11th Do you know or have you ever heard and from whom that Valentine the father paid his son Charles for any improvements for what improvements and how much was paid.

12th Did the said Jacob Flegle one other of the complainants after he married live on the land and how long, did he make any improvements and what were they? relate all your knowledge—

13th Did the Complainant John Flegle ever live on any part of the land after his marriage.

14th When were the said Charles, Valentine, Jacob and John Flegle the complainants respectively named? Note to the best of your recollection.

June Term 1818

15th How long was it before the death of the said Valentine Flegles first wife that the complainants Valentine Charles and Jacob Flegle had moved off the said land—

16th Before the death of Valentine the fathers first wife, and how long before her death did not Jacob the complainant return and live in the house built by said Charles Flegle.

17th How was the said Jacob Flegle dispossessed of the said land

18th Do you know or have you ever heard and from whom when the complainants first set up a claim to the said land when did you first hear of such claim.

19th after the land was surveyed as before mentioned which of the complainants resided thereon and did they reside on the same places they lived on first after their respective marriages.

20th What do you suppose to be the values of Valentines the fathers other property except that claimed by the complainants.

21st Do you know or have you ever heard and from whom how the complainants or either of them treated their father relate all your knowledge

22d Do you know or have you ever heard and from whom how they treated his second wife before and after the marriage relate all your knowledge

23d Do you know or have you ever heard and from whom on what terms the complainants after their marriages lived on the land relate all your knowledge.

24th Do you know any thing further favorable to the defendants if you relate the same fully and particularly.

John Johnson for Defts.

Charles, Valentine, Jacob and John Flegle vs. Lawrence Burkhart and Mary his wife	In the high Court of Chancery.

At the execution of a commission issued from the high Court of Chancery directed to Richard Brooke of Frederick County Commissioner to examine evidences in a cause depending in the said Court between Charles Flegle and others complainants and Lawrence Burkhart and Mary his wife defendants the Commissioner met on this 18th day of November eighteen hundred and five at the tavern of Peter Shoemaker and proceeded to take the following depositions.

John Slife, aged about 49 years a witness produced on the part of the defendant being first duly sworn deposeth as follows,