and the said Margery Fowke by her attorney aforesaid as before defends the force and injury when and so forth and will avow the taking of the said goods and chattels aforesaid in the place in on which and so forth and justly and so forth because she saith that the same place where the taking of the goods and so forth is supposed to be contain and at the same time when the taking of these goods and so forth supposed to be did contain in itself a certain messuage or tenement lying in the county aforesaid commonly called the Hill Top of which said messuage the said

Margery before the said time when was seized in her demesne as of fee and being so thereof seized it was agreed between her and the said Kennedy before the said time when and so forth to wit on the first day of January in the year eighteen hundred and seven at the county aforesaid that the said Kennedy should enter into the same in which and so forth and should occupy the same in which and so forth for one whole year from the said day and year aforesaid until the first day of January in the year thereafter fully to be complete and ended and so from year to year so long as it shall please both parties the said Kennedy rendering and paying therefore yearly and every year to the said Margery the sum of four hundred dollars current money by virtue whereof the said Kennedy into the said place in which entered and the same for two whole years from the day and year first aforesaid next ensuing held and occupied and because the sum of eight hundred dollars the rent aforesaid for the two years aforesaid before the aforesaid time when and so forth was in arrear and unpaid to the said Margery at the time when and so forth the said Margery will avow the taking of the goods aforesaid in the said place where and so forth and justly and so forth for the said sum so in arrear as aforesaid as in the said place in which and so forth and which to the distress of the said Margery in form aforesaid was charged and bound and this she is ready to verify wherefore she prays judgment and a return of the goods and so forth to be adjudged to her and so forth.

C Dorsey for avowant Pledges John Doe and Richard Roe.

Whereupon the said plaintiff by his attorney saith that he by any thing in the avowry of the said avowant from having and maintaining his said action to be precluded ought not because he saith that it was agreed by and between the said plaintiff and avowant that she would repair the stone house on the said messuage rented to the said plaintiff by the said avowant as stated by the said avowant and the said plaintiff avers that the said avowant did not repair the said stone house as agreed though thereto requested by the said plaintiff to wit on the said first day of January in the year 1807 and often afterwards whereby the said plaintiff was greatly injured to the amount of eighty pounds current money and this he is ready to verify. and the said Margery Fowke says that the plea aforesaid by the said Clement Kennedy Junior in manner and form above in replying pleaded and the matters therein contained are not sufficient in law for the said Clement Kennedy Junior to have or
