Richard Ridgely's Lessee vs
Sally H. Hammond

Be it remembered, that heretofore to wit, on the twenty third day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty one John Denn Lessee of Richard Ridgely by Alexander C. Magruder & Thomas B. Dorsey his attorneys prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland of Habeas Corpus Possessionem to the Sheriff of Anne arundel County directed, in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland Set.

The State of Maryland to the Sheriff of Anne arundel County Greeting whereas at a County Court began and held at the City of Annapolis in and for Anne arundel County on the third Monday of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nineteen a certain John Denn lessee of Richard Ridgely by Judgment of the said court recovered against Sally H. Hammond his term yet to come and unexpired of and in all that part of the tract or parcel of land called Dorsey's Search (the Original Survey) according to the location which is comprehended within the lines for which the said Sally H. Hammond took defence on the plots and explanations in the said cause (one of which is hereunto annexed that is to say beginning at the black figures 90 as designated on the said plots and running thence to figure 57 thence with the river Patuxent to figures 56 and thence with the plain black lines (agreeably to the first position of the plaintiffs location of the said tract of land made on the 30th of March 1818 as certified by the Surveyor of Anne arundel County in the explanations in the said cause copy of which is also hereunto annexed) to black figures 91 thence by the lines shaded for the greater part thereof green and numbered 11 to black figures 92 and thence by the green line to the beginning with the appurtenances lying and being in Anne arundel County which the said Richard Ridgely on the first day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixteen demised to the said John Denn for a term of years which is not yet expired to hold from the thirty first day of December then last past until the full end and term of fifteen years from thence next ensuing and fully to be complete and ended as also the sum of one cent current money for his damages which he had sustained as well by reason of the trespass and ejectment committed by the said Sally H. Hammond as the sum of four hundred and sixty four dollars and eighty two cents for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended whereof the said Sally H. Hammond is convict as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court brought before the Court of appeals for the western shore at the City of Annapolis by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears. And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of appeals at the City of Annapolis on the second monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty one that the said judgment given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and ratified and that the said John Denn lessee as aforesaid might have his possession of his term aforesaid yet to come and unexpired of and unto all that part of the tract or parcel of land called Dorsey's Search (the Original Survey) and appurtenances aforesaid and also execution against the said
