[illegible] of trespass on the case, and so forth. And thereupon the said John Craig and John Barron by David Hoffman, Peter H. Louse and Charles F. Mayer their attorneys complain, that whereas the said John Craig and John Barron before & up to, and at the time of committing the grievance hereinafter mentioned, to wit, on the first day of January, in the year eighteen hundred & fifteen at the City of Baltimore, aforesaid County, were lawfully and peaceably seized in their demesne as of fee & yet are seized & continually thence hitherto were seized as aforesaid, of and in those three lots or parcels of ground situate in that part of the City of Baltimore called Fells Point & which are distinguished on a plat of the said Point, by the numbers 93 & 94 & 95 respectively and together contained within the bounds metes, courses & distances following, that is to say: Beginning for the same at the northeast corner or intersection of George & Wolfe Streets and running thence northerly, bounding on Wolfe Street, two hundred feet to Lancaster Alley, thence easterly bounding on said Alley to the Water, thence southerly, with the water, two hundred feet to George Street & thence westerly bounding on George Street to the place of beginning, which said pieces or parcels of ground lie in our body as aforesaid & are bounded by a certain navigable river called the Patapsco, which said navigable river by the whole time aforesaid, used to flow & reflow to & from said pieces or parcels of ground uninterruptedly, and the plaintiffs in fact say, that upon said pieces of ground where the same bound on said river, there was during the whole time aforesaid a certain wharf, where as aforesaid the plaintiffs were & yet are as aforesaid seized as aforesaid, by means of which said navigable river & said ground & said wharf the said plaintiffs, during the whole time aforesaid had enjoyed the advantage of sailing & permitting others, for valuable considerations, to sail to and from the said parcels of land & wharf, with all manner of vessels & unloading & permitting others for valuable considerations, to unload at said ground & said wharf, all manner of goods, wares & merchandize, & by & on account of the wharfage of vessels & of the use & employment of said wharf & of said ground & of the buildings & appurtenances thereon & thereto belonging, the said Barron & Craig became entitled to & derived & had & enjoyed large & valuable profits, rewards, issues, benefits & advantages during the whole time aforesaid, & at the time of committing the grievance hereinafter mentioned, which said profits, issues, benefits & advantages & rewards during all the time aforesaid, the said plaintiffs ought to have had, and still ought to have. And whereas the said Craig & Barron at the time of committing the grievance hereafter mentioned to wit, on the first day of January, in the year eighteen hundred & fifteen & before & up to that time, at the City of Baltimore, at the County aforesaid, were possessed of another piece of ground in the City of Baltimore aforesaid, being composed of