Dec. 20 Comes Jos.h Nevin Gent. of Charles County and produced to the Judge here the Will of William Boatterham late of Charles County a pr.d: proved by the oaths of Standish Brooke and Jeffry Cole two of the witnesses thereunto subscribed before Thomas Smax Deputy Commissary for the said County w.ch the said Gent. prayed might be recorded in this Office and it was accordingly ordered

Jan. 29: Edward Droore of Calvert County and Mary his wife Ex.rs of the last will and Testament of Winifred Muller widow decd came by William Doubleday Thomas Lo.d and tendred to the Judge here their Libell or Bill of complaint against Edward Eye late of Charles County gent. &c. as follows viz.

To

To the Hon.ble their May.ties Judge in Testamentary causes in Maryland &c.

The complaint of Roger Droore gent. and Mary his wife Ex.tx of the last will and Testament of Winifred Muller widow decd. Exhibited against Edward Eye late of Charles County gent. &c.

In all humble manner complaining shewe unto y.r Hon.r that the said Winifred Muller the 20.th Day of April in the year of our Lord 1685: at Portobacco in Charles County was possessed in her own proper right of divers goods & Chattels in this province of Maryland to the value of 20000: p.ds of Tobacco, and of divers summes of money in the Kingdom of England to the value of 150 pounds sterling and being so therof possessed, afterwards the said 20.th Day of April 1685: being then a Sojourner or Lodger at the house of the said Edward Eye at Portobacco, and having with her divers goods and chattels made her last will and Testament in writeing, and signed sealed and attested and deed published and declared his same, and amongst other things therein contained, did nominate & ordeine and appoint your Oratrix Mary Brooke wife to be sole Ex.tx of that her last will and Testament and soon after the making and finishing the same, she the said Winifred dyed at the house of the said Edward Eye at Portobacco aforesd. and possessed of the p.sonall Estate aforesd. after whose death the said Edward Eye, plotting and fraudulently conceiveing how to make to himself unlawfull gaines and profitt, will knowing of the will of the said Winifred, and deprive yo.r Oratrix therof to be Ex.tx as aforesaid but endeavouring to frustrate the will of the decd. and deprive yo.r Oratrix of the honour reposed in her by some sinister and undue ways and meanes did get into his hands the said Will, and not only so but all the goods and Chattels of the said decd. then at his house, and the same Will & goods and Chattels in his hands from your Oratrix Mary hitherto hath and still doth unjustly detaine to the great damage not only of your Oratrix Mary in her Executorship but of divers other persons in England in defrauding and hindering the payment of divers Legacies given and bequeathed unto them by the s.d Will, as by the same Will (if the said Edward would discover it) more plainly may appeare, all which doings of the said Edward, are against right equity and good conscience, and your Orator.s having noe meanes by the strict Rules of the common Law of the Land to be relieved against the unjust doings of the s.d Edward but only in this Method before your Hon.r doe therefore humbly pray their May.ties gracious writt of citation to be to the s.d Edward directed, commanding him at a certaine day, and under a certaine paine to be and appeare before y.r Hon.r and true answer make to the premises, and therein particularly to sett forth, and declare upon his oath whether the s.d Winifred did not make such Will in writeing & after divers Legacies therein given and bequeathed did not nominate and appoint your Oratrix Mary Brooke wife to and sole Ex.tx of the same, and if the s.d Will after the death of the s.d Winifred did not come to the hands of the s.d Edward, and if he have not hitherto detained it from yo.r Oratrix though often required, and wherefore he detaines the same, or what right he has thereunto, and also that he may particularly declare what goods and Chattels the s.d decd. had at the time of her death at his house, & wherefore he had detained the same, which answer of the s.d Edward (if truly made, together with what your Orator shall be able to prove, they doubt not but) will be sufficient ground to yo.r Hon.r to make a decree against the said Edward and compell him to render unto yo.r Orator the said Will of the said Winifred, and an acc.t of the goods and Chattels left at his house at her decease, and to satisfie and pay all such costs and charges as your Orator shall necessarily expended in procureing the same, occasioned by the unjust doeings of the said Edward. &c. And as in Duty bound they shall ever pray &c.

Wm. Doubleday Solicitor

Memdum. The Judge of this Court returned into the Office that on the 12.th Day of December last had appeared before him Mary Payne the widow and Relict of Henry Payne late of St. Maries County decd. and shewed to the s.d Judge that her husband the s.d Henry Payne died Intestate wherefore she prayed and had granted unto her Letters of Administration of the s.d Deceased's Estate, she taking the oath before the said Judge well and truly to Administer the same and given bond with Sec.ty Thomas Mooney her security in the summe of four hundred pounds sterl. according to ye.r form; Richard Fowler and John Bailey nominated and sworne Appraisers and had warrant granted them well and truly to appraise the s.d Estate; Bond filed in the Office Jurat. &c. by the tenth day of February next.
