Fol.o (vid.t)

Cork the 12.th of May 91:

Loving Kinsman
I rec.d: thine of the 23 of July 1690: an acc.t of my Dear husbands will, being deceased September 1689: w.ch I rec.d: very kindly, and shall if I can in my power be always ready to relaciate y.e Same. as my husband left it upon the plantation soo I doe not doubt but thy care will be for my good, w.ch pray continue and encourage the plantation that nothing may be out of ord.r when I shall w.ch will be in some little time I hope, and that I may find that will greatly indeare me to gratitude: I understand that John Hendall have employed one that is goine to Virginia to dispose of my husbands concerns for his acc.t thinking I was dead, w.ch proceeding is utterly forbid, and if any such thing is done it is in his owne wrong, & that he shall know, for altho my husband is dead I am not yet debarred of
