The Emblem of
LIBERTY AND HUMANITY

ISN'T IT A SHAME ?

WHY IS IT THAT THE Maryland General Assembly now in session in the city of Annapolis, did not grant the best part of our proposition (WOMAN) the right to suffrage ?

The Maryland women are noted for their hospitality all over the United States.

Ladies, put your shoulders to the wheel and have the bill called up again and reconsidered before adjournment.

There is not a Legislator who voted against the bill but that should be ashamed of it. Try again, ladies, and if you do try GO SOME !

We have appended a few of the good deeds she has already been guilty of. Peruse them carefully and thoughtfully, and for the love of God, don't let them startle you :

First—She comes to us in our birthhood and nurses us into babyhood. Now this is point No. 1.

Second—From babyhood to childhood, and we think this is point No. Two.

Third—From childhood to boyhood and girlhood, never tiring to make her children a blessing to God and the balance of mankind. This we know full well is point No. 3.

Fourth—Then from boyhood and girlhood to manhood and womanhood, scattering sweet-scented, rosy-tinted, violet-hued flowers all along the pathway, trying to make it pleasant for us. And we DO KNOW that this is point No. 4.

Fifth—After she does all this she is not content with what good she has already done, but trots along with us, pointing out the snares that have been laid for us. Don't you think point No. 5 is a good one? Now this is going some, or some going.

And now, gentlemen of the Maryland General Assembly, give these God-given, noble women a chance to vote for the next President of these United States, who will sure be a Republican—WE HOPE.

A RUBBER STAMP

ROBERT LANSING refused to be a mouse and left a great office with the respect of his fellow countrymen. Mr. Colby will be a rubber stamp in the hands of Woodrow Wilson. He agreed to be that or he would not have the President's confidence. Of Mr. Colby's fitness for the office the less said the better. If he had any he would not have been selected. As to the politics involved the Democrats will find no comfort in this appointment. It may signify Mr. Wilson's complete break with his party.

THERE could be no more complete defiance of custom and precedent than the selection of Bainbridge Colby to succeed Robert Lansing, and there could be no more complete justiffcation for disregarding those standards than the President's own experience in adhering to them in the past. Mr. Colby will necessarily be an experiment as Secretary of State, but most of his predecessors have been experiments.
