him to settle his Estate. And the said Swealman said he had for bore for that purpose that night, endeavoure to take a Message before and the dep.t saith that after the said Swealman was a sleep, the said King writ three or four Lines which he believes was part of said Swealman's Will and the said King said it by, and the deponent parted the room a while and in a short time he coming in again found said Swealman sitting in a Chaire and said King asked him whether he would have his Estate divided between his two Sisters who answered he would only only one Sister should have fifty pounds more than the other and named her name but the dep.t has forgott her name. And the dep.t saith, Mr Gibson asked the said Swealman if he would give his servant woman Mary Pepper some part of her time who answered no, no, no,
And the said dep.t further saith he had with said Swealman one Year and has known him this fourteen or fifteen Years and if ever he was in his Senses since he knew him he was at that time and further saith not that some time in July last past being in Company with Mr.

Edward Swealman and Mr.s Mary Tilden some discourse past be=tween them two ab.t two young women Sisters Children of Mr.
Swealman's as I did understand to the was Newly settling in some Employment as Shepheeping as I did understand Mr.s Tilden did speak much in the praise of the aforesaid young women and told Mr. Swealman that he would do well to assist them a little they being young Beginners if it was 10 or 20.l it would be less to them and Mr.s Swealman spoke slowly to him but did not say and remember that he would but shewed displeasure something inclinable to assist them this what I can remember and further saith not
