The work of the General Assembly came to a close Tuesday night last, April 6th. Both houses have been crowded with belated bills this week and many very important matters were delayed until near the end of the session.

Talk about the man who cuts his own hair or uses a wart on the back of his neck for a collarbutton is a sport compared to the man who stops his paper and imposes on the charity of his neighbor who pays for what he receives.

Miss Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Bishop, of near Greensboro, and Mr. John G. Hurd, a young farmer, were united in marriage at the M. E. parsonage in Greensboro on Tuesday evening March 30th, by Rev. J. A. Leach. There was a largely attended reception and wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents.

Hon. Edwin Warfield, Governor of Maryland from 1904 to 1908, president of the Maryland Historical Society and until last January president of the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland and the Fidelity Trust Company, died at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, March 24th, at his city, home 1223 Linden avenue, Baltimore.

At an early hour Monday morning in a heavy fog, the steamer "Pocomoke," of the B. C. & A. line, plying between Crisfield and Baltimore, collided with an oil tanker in the Patapsco river and was badly damaged. Capt. Richard Howard was in command of the steamer, which made port without mishap and immediately went under repairs.

Miss Nobia Mason of Crisfield, and Mr. Marlyn Schoff Tull of Philadelphia were quietly married by Rev. Chas. M. Elderice, at Mt. Pleasant M. P. Parsonage on Thursday evening, March 25th. They have been residing at the Colonial hotel for the past week, but will shortly leave for Philadelphia where they will make their future home.

Marriage licenses were recently issued to the following parties: A. Noole Calloway, of Bridgeville, and Miss Mabel S. Clark, of Federalsburg; Louis Hignutt, of Bridgeville, and Miss Ida E. Hartleman, of near Bridgeville; John G. Hurd, of Delton, and Miss Ruth Bishop, of Greensboro; James A. McFarland, and Miss May Morris, of Greenwood.

A birthday party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willoughby in honor of their daughter, Mida, on the evening of March 24th. The party was well attended by guests from Talbot and Caroline counties. They were highly entertained with music and games until a late hour. Refreshments were served, Miss Willoughby receiving many beautiful presents.

Thos. Callahan tells a good joke on himself while in Baltimore last week looking after a truck. He answered an advertisement and the owner asked $650 for the truck. As the truck had seen better days, Tommie offered him $250, and the owner asked Tom: "Young man do you cut your own hair?" Tommie retorted: "If I paid your price you could hire a barber by the year and then some."

Among the nominations which President Wilson has sent to the Senate confirmation is that of Charles A. Whittle, Jr., for postmaster at Odenton, in the fourth district of Anne Arundle county. The nominations of two other Maryland P. M.'s also have been sent in by the President. They are: Hessie E. Nowlin, Fort Washington and Charles M. Newman, of Mount Rainier, Prince George's county.

It has been authoritatively announced that Mr. T. Alan Goldsborough is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress. He filed certificates of candidacy in all the counties of the district. Col. Albert W. Sisk some time ago made known his intention to be a candidate, and Mr. Hilton W. Robertson, of Wicomico, several weeks ago filed his nomination papers with the several boards of election supervisors.

Alexander Willis, colored met instant and horrible death Tuesday March 28th, afternoon when he fell into a circular saw at Henry Hughes saw mill near Pomona Kent county. Willis was engaged in placing a large log on the conveyor and attempted to step across the log while in motion. He missed his footing and fell directly in front of the saw. He was horribly mangled, one arm and his head being almost completely severed from his body.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the carriage house, together with 2 Ford automobiles, two carriages and practically all the farming implements on the farm of Mr. Edward C. Carter on Monday night, March 29th, about 11 o'clock. Mr. Carter's son came home about half past ten, but did not see any fire at that time. The building and implements were ablaze when discovered. Assistance of neighbors saved other outbuildings. The loss is estimated at $1,500, partly covered by insurance.

Rumors were current among base ball fans last week that a small leagues might be organized on the Eastean Shore this season, similar to the one operated last summer. The rumor has it that Cambridge, Salisbury, Chestertown, Easton and Seaford fans are anxious to become identified with an Easton Shore League, and it is entirely likely that Centreville, Queenstown, Kennedyville and Millington, the four towns comprising the league last summer, also would be willing to join.

The County Commissioners of Talbot county are considering the advisability of selling the almshouse farm Hambelton, containing about 500 acres. It is said that the farm is not self sustaining, as it never pays over $500 a year, while the expenses last year of maintaining the inmates was $2,717 16, which far exceeded the receipts. They claim that they have to appropriate yearly $2000 for thier support and if the farm were sold they could be cared for at some other place for less money.

Thieves have been busy in Crisfield recently, a number of places of business being entered and various articles stolen. At noon last Friday, while Mr. J. T. Conner was at lunch someone gained an entrance to his store through a rear window, and stole about $125 00 in cash and automatic pistols, jewelry, etc., valued at about $75 00. One evening recently someone also broke into the barber shop of Mr Edward J Smith and stole about $10 in money and several dollars worth of Lime Cola Water.

Growers of fruits of all kinds now feel sure they will have this year the best crops they have had in the past decade. Last winter continued cold enough form the first of December to keep the buds from swelling, and the apple, peach, pear and cherry trees are in a very healthy condition. The prospects for fine crops of strawberries, blackberries, grapes, and all kinds of fruit grown in Caroline are excellent. Owners of the fruit farms are plowing their orchards and putting the land in good shape.

Mrs. Lillie Bramble, widow of Charles Bramble, is dead from injuries received by being struck by an automobile Wednesday, night, March 31st. M. Splinder, employed by the Benjamin T. Crump Company of Richmond, was driving the car. A little girl who was with Mrs. Bramble started across the road in front of the automobile. The car was coming down a hill at no great speed and the suddeness of the child running across the street made Mr. Mr. Splinder try to avoid hitting the child, and in doing so avoid hitting the child, and in doing so hit Mrs. Bramble. She sustained a fracture of the skull, and Mrs. Clara Williams, who was with her, was slightly injured."

Anyone who travels the State roads in Caroline County knows they have been injured by the recent hard winter. Chairman Zouck recently stated that the recent winter had been an exceptionally hard one on the State, and that, in many places, after the snow, ice, and frost have disappeared, they will resemble the country roads. He declared that the big trucks and the freezing process, both of which have been working on the roads all winter, have simply "chewd" them up and left them in a bad condition. It will take a long time and much expense to restore them by the State road repair force, which is now getting ready to give the road from Easton to Centreville a thorough overhauling.

The past week witnessed the greatest run of fish that Crisfield has ever known in its history, the quantity of Shad coming to this point breaking all previous records. Tuesday's shipment of Shad amounted to twenty express carloads, and the city markets became glutted, thus breaking the price right at the start of the season. Monday evening shad dropped in price here, from 30 cents for Bucks and $1 for Roe Shad, to 10 and 30 cents. Barrels are at a premium in Crisfield, the dealers here facing a shortage and not being able to get nearly enough to pack their fish. An ice shortage also existed throughout the past week, the demands on the local plant being more than they could supply. As a result, daily shipments of several carloads have been received from Salisbury.

Travelers, Take Notice

People who travel around for pleasure during the Spring and Summer will do well to call on John V. Rolph, who has an up-to-the-minute restaurant at Harrington, Del., in the centre of the town. He has every convenience for the accommodation of the traveling public—electric lights, shower and bath combined. Give Mr. Rolph a trial and you will be sure to go on your way rejoicing with a full stomach.

"Evangeline"

Don't fail to see Miriam Cooper in "Evangeline" at Parker's theatre, April 16th. This is one of the most beautiful pictures ever shown on the screen. A rare treat to every one who will see this wonderful picture, taken from Longfellow's best poem. Bring the children. They either have studied or will study "Evangeline" at school.

Performances start at 7:00 and 8:45 o'clock. Admission, 35 cents. The Denton Orchestra will be in attendance.

Law to Protect Muskrats.

A bill has been in the Legislature relating to the muskrats which is of interest to many who own land on the bay or river shores. The bill provides for the regulation of the catching law, and it also provides for license for trappers. In addition the bill provides that "Every person who purchases, barters or sells muskrats furs, except persons who kill such muskrats, shall pay to the Clerk of Court of said county of city the sum of $50 as a traders' license, unless said persons are merchants holding traders license." The bill established restrictions for their preseration and protection. The demand for the pelts of the little animals is their worst menace. Twenty years ago the pelts were drugs in the market at 25 cents each. Today they find ready sale at $4 50. The carcasses, which formerly went to the waste heap, now bring 30 cents. A trapper in Dorchester county is said to have made over $10,000 during the present season. The total sales of pelts in Talbot county, according to reports, have exceeded $500,000 for the season.

Inter-church World Movement In Denton April 9th

At the Caroline county conference of the Interchurch world Movement United Financial Campaign, which will be held in Denton on April 9, a group of prominent men and women interested in the movement will be present from Baltimore and other parts of the State.

Several "teams" of workers trained in presenting the various features of the Interchurch World Movement are touring the State. The group that will speak in Denton, where the conference will be held at the Methodist Protestant Church, is led by Charles F. Scofield, of Baltimore. He will present a general statement of the Interchurch World Movement and the United Financial Campaign, giving a survey of conditions as revealed by the recent church survey.

J. R. Picking, of Newcastle Del., will have charge of the young people's session of the conference and will also direct the evangelistic program. F. C. McSorley of Federalsburg, makes an address of laymen's activities and Levi K. Ziegler, of Denton, will present the work of the surveys—foreign, home and county.

At a special woman's meeting in connection with the conference, Mrs. H. Usilton of Chestertown, will make the chief address.

Special emphasis will be placed at the conference on plans for the United Financial Campaign to raise $336,777,572 during the week of April 25. The county director of the campaign will tell of the county organization and there will be a series of denominational rallies to check up on the campaign plans of each denomination represented.

Generous Aid From Y. M. C. A.

It seems that the ex-service men of Caroline County are entitled to a share of the money returned from Y. M. C. A. headquarters as per advice recently received from Washington. This will likely amount to $400, or more, and will be used to apply on tuition at standard schools and correspondence courses, the latter of which have become so popular.

Any young man formerly in the service and interested in obtaining some aid from this fund would do well to write to the Chairman of the Y. M. C. A. Committee, Box 238, Denton, Md.

Pure-Bred Sires Head Eight Classes

The extent of live-stock operations and the wide range of stock kept on many farms are shown by figures received by the UnitedStates Department of Agriculture in connection with the nation-wide "Better Sires Better Stock" campaign. Although this movement in stock betterment includes the eight principal classes of domestic animals raised in the United States, many farms keep all of them.

A farmer in Marion County, Fla., recently listed for enrollment pure-bred sires of the following kinds; Aberdeen-Angus bulls Percheron and Saddle stallions, Mammoth jacks, Nubian billy goats, White Plymoth Rock cocks, and Bronze tom turkeys. In addition, he keeps pure-bred boars and rams. These pure-bred males were used as sires for 1,048 head of female stock, of which 358 were pure bred and the remainder grade. No scrub animals of any kind were kept.

Agricultural extension workers and county agents in Florida have been aggressive in replacing scrub live stock and especally inferior sires with animals of improved breeding.
