MICKIE SAYS

The "Lower Calling."

The Principal—Miss Brown, I wish you would give up this idea of marriage. The training of children is a far higher calling than the mere bearing of them.

The Teacher—Yes, Miss Matthews; but if it weren't for those of the lower calling, whom would you have to train?—Life.

BALTIMORE BOY GETS BIG BALTIMORE TELEPHONE JOB

LEO D. MAHON, TELEPHONE MANAGER OF BALTIMORE.

True to its policy of making acceptable local appointments to its important managerial posts, the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, has appointed Leo D. Mahon its District Manager in Baltimore. Mr. Mahon was born in Baltimore in 1889 and has grown up in the telephone industry. His first job after leaving school was peddling combs in the streets of Baltimore. Because of his grasp of the telephone business he was sent to the National Capital temporarily during the war and helped carry the enormous load on the telephone company during that period. His official duties in Baltimore commence June 1.

Origin of the Jazz Band.

The jazz band idea, according to a French paper, originated in the time of the Directory. At the concerts of the Cat orchestra were twenty cats, heads in a row on the keyboard of a harpsichord. The performer by striking the keys pulled the cats' tails, causing a caterwauling which sounded like a jazz band.

Children and Malaria.

Dr. C. C. Bass of New Orleans, the great authority on malaria, says that in this disease the dose of quinine for children less than one year old is one-twentieth of the adult dose, and from one to fifteen it is one-tenth of the adult dose.

IS as unchangeable as the famous laws of the Medes and the Persians.

The individual who spends more than he earns—or, as is far too often the case, spends all before he earns—travels in a hopeless circle. He cannot advance, and "he who does not advance, recedes."

The person who saves BEFORE he spends inevitably registers progress. Why not put the principle to the test?
