NEW PHONE PRESIDENT BELIEVES IN STRAIGHT TALK POLICY

A. E. BERRY, PRESIDENT OF THE C. AND P. TELEPHONE CO.

Starting his working career on a dredging boat in the Potomac River and being elected President of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company at just about forty years of age, A. E. Berry is making friends in Maryland because of his policy of plain dealing with the public.

"There is nothing about our business we want to hide," said Mr. Berry to newspaper men in his office recently. "On the other hand I would like to get all Maryland asking questions about the telephone business."

Mr. Berry's policy of absolute frankness with the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia resulted in the quickest rate-case hearing on record and a favorable decision on the company's application to increase the rates to parallel those requested in Baltimore.

A Concept of Duty.

Automoble Commissioner Expects Big Rush For Licenses.

Automobile Commissioner Baugbaan is preparing to take care of a great rush for operators and chauffers licenses during the month of June. On June 1, the recent amendment of Section 143 of the Motor Vehicle Law goes into effect. This amendment yrovides that youths between the ages of 16 to 18 years may now apply now for license to operate automobiles in this State and be granted one in the event that the satisfactorily pass the required [illegible] The Automobile Commissioner has been opposed to the lowering of the age limit throughout the fight which was carried on in the Legislature on this point. The law was passed however despite his opposition. The Commisioner is willing to concede that a great many youths between the ages of 16 and 18 years are perfecty competent to shift levers on an automobile and steer same on a straight course but he stoutly maintains that 90 per cent of the boys and girls between these ages have neither the prudence nor the discretion that is required to operate a motor vehicle It was observed during the recent war when by a speical war measure, certain youth between 16 and 18 year of age were permitted to take out chauffeurs and operotors licenses that most of these boys were prone to "Pass everything on the road", oftentimes doing this at the most inopportune moments when the view [illegible] is obstructed by a curve or when the way ahead was not clear of approaching traffic. The Comissioner sincerely hopes, that those parents who allow their 16 and 17 year old offspring to obtain licenses to operate automobiles will see that they are throughly instructed regarding the operation of same and that when practial those youngsters be accompanied by one of their elders who will be able to check those outbreaks of that fast and reckless driving mania which has so often spread death and destruction in its path. The Commissioner has decided that inasmuch as none of these applicants between the ages of 16 and 18 years have ever had an opportunity to drive before in this State he will require that they keep their instruction license for the full period of thirty days before issuing them a regular operators license. By the provision of Sections 143 on one is allowed to drive on an instruction license unless accompanied by a regularly licensed operator. The Automobile Commissioners office is daily in receipt of from 50 to 100 applications for operators license from youths below 18 years of age and these applications are being daily returned as no applications may be received until after June 1st.

Russian Czar Sends Quartet to America

Contest Decides Best Singers

The former Russian Czar wanted the church and folk songs of his country represented to America in the most effective manner possible. In order to secure the best exponents of Russian vocal music he declared an all-Russian contest where thousands of the best vocalists in all-Russia competed.

The four successful competitors were sent to America, and added to the Russian Cathedral Choir. They immediately drew the attention of famous critics and concert managers. The marvelous range of their voices was astonishing. (Bass reaching "B flat" below the staff; tenor "high D.")

Imperial command, however, kept them from all but one public concert a year.

Now, however, that the Czar has been overthrown, the edict is a thing of the past, and this wonderful harmony is available for the music lovers of the country.

They are now on tour with the Swarthmore Chautauquas, and will appear here on the third day of the program.

Their concert in the evening will be followed by Dr. Frank Bohn's lecture, "Revolutionary Europe." He has personally been in the seething nations of Central Europe, and will tell the facts of the hour. Those things which newspapers seldom print about European unrest will receive close attention from Dr. Bohn.

Immortal "Mermaid."

She was a "famous woman," because she was a "famous" inn that served "famous" men. That was enough for the Mermaid. She was named after an enchanting lady of the vasty deep, who is a woman to her girdle and a fish to her feet. Her figure was on the signboard of the famous inn, in Friday street, London. Pass with hasty glance the bar in front—the parlor behind of the blackened roof and polished tables—taproom on the left—low doorways, winding passages—and you have come to the inn parlor. This is the Mermaid! And the men sitting there? Ben Jonson, Fletcher, Beaumont, Carew, Donne and—Shakespeare. Shakespeare is roaring over his dog's nose, and Ben Jonson over his canary. Oh, listen to the wit-combats between Shakespeare and Ben Jonson! Mermaid, dear "famous woman," why were you not a twin?

Harmony Magnificent!

PADEREWSKI AT THE PIANO

Description of Great Master's Playing Well Called a Gem of Humorous Composition.

The death recently of Ed H. Smith recalled the humorous editorials which made his little newspaper, the Chula News, noted. The one which first drew attention to it follows:

"We heard the Polander, Paderewski, play the piano in Kansas City last night. The fellow is deceitful. He makes you think all the time that he is going to play a tune, but he never does. He flirts all around a tune, but never touches it. His hair looks like a wig, but it isn't. He deceives you in a hundred ways. He makes the sweetest sounds you ever heard that were not a tune. He has his piano so trained that the doggone thing will keep right on playing when he is not touching it. He reaches out slowly and strokes it, drawing back his elbows like a man brushing a girl's hair. You see the moonlight and you're there with your girl, but somehow she don't love you. We know the sorrow of that, and that's why we don't like Paderewski. There are troubles enough in the world without hearing Paderewski. A man don't want to feel like he had thrown the mutilated remains of his grandmother in the sewer. If this is Paderewski's last visit to America we're glad of it. But we wouldn't take $100 for what we heard."

LOOKED AS IF HE KNEW

Good Reason Why Soldiers Urged Lieutenant to Take Military Policeman's Word for It.

A colored detachment under a white lieutenant was making its way through the shattered territory near Dun-sur-Meuse during the thick of the Argonne drive. At a crossroads it encountered a traffic-directing M. P. who halted the column.

"Sorry, sir," he said to the officer in charge. "You are not allowed up that road. We have information that it is about to be shelled by the enemy."

The officer carefully examined his orders. "My instructions read differently," he declared. "I cannot believe that this is the road to be shelled. Have you any verification?"

At this moment a shell burst within a hundred yards, tearing up the earth and sending debris flying in every direction. The entire landscape was obliterated, and a dead silence, broken only by the crash of falling stones, ensued. Then, out of a cloud of settling dust, arose one faint, terrified voice:

"Fo' Gawd's sake, lootenant, please take de gemman's word fo' it!"—The Home Sector.

Business Welcomes Radio Circuits.

With the new radio circuits in operation between America and the far East, it is comforting to know, even if one has infrequent occasion to communicate with Japan, Hawaii and the Philippines, that the new service is considered quite reasonably inexpensive. One may communicate with Manila from the California stations for 6 cents a word, and with Hawaii for 3. Even if the rates were higher, however, the new circuits would be welcomed by American business interests for the development of trade, as well as the transmission of news, has been seriously handicapped by lack of facilities for communication. The United States will get a better news service in consequence, do more business, and may feel also, according to naval officers, that the national defense system has been strengthened at a weak point.—Christian Science Monitor.

Mary Pickford's Greatest Play

"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm"

This comedy-drama of American rural life is dear to the heart of every child (in body or spirit) in America. Nearly everyone has read Kate Douglas Wiggins' charming story or seen the screen version starring Mary Pickford as Rebecca.

For this reason it will be welcome news that the coming Chautauqua will present this play in the usual "Chautauqua style." Special scenery will be carried and an effective handling of all parts may be expected when it is known that this play will be given by "The Chautauqua Players."

Miss Elizabeth Oliver, whom you will remember as "Josie Lockwood" in "The Fortune Hunter," will be in the cast. She has just completed a most successful winter tour covering over 150 towns in which she presented "Turn to the Right" as a dramatic recital.

Bertha McDonough, an old friend of Chautauqua audiences, will play the part of Rebecca. Her interpretation of the heroine is sure to be delightful.

Chinese Imperial Salute.

The salutation to the Chinese emperor consisted in the kow tow, an act of prostration and striking the forehead upon the ground while speaking the words which translated meant: "Hail, son of Heaven."

First Idea of Sleeping Car.

In 1836, on the 2d of December the first patent for a sleeping car was issued to Theodore Woodruff, the inventor. The idea was developed by Webster Wagner two years later, and by George Pullman in 1859.
