To a hearing on bill and Answer at which said next Court viz: this Eleventh day of March Anno Domi 1718 and the same Court was standing ready to proceed hearing Comes the parties by his Proctator and produced into Court the following Evidences who being sworne in Open Court on the Holy Evangelist Deposes as follows viz:

Mrs Eliz: Jones sworne on behalf of the Complt says she saw the receipts acknowledging the receipt of Money from Capt. Jones to Benj: Capel on acct of Mat: Silley and y^t she kept Capt. Jones papers under her own Care and found those receipts among Capt. Jones papers

Mr Farner Wooten sworn on behalf of the Complt Declares he made the Copys produced in Court from the receipts sworn to in Court by Madm Jones and that he believes the same to be true Copys of said receipts which Copys being produced and read in Court she the said Madm Jones believes the Originals to be the same — Libellee

Mr William Hebb sworne on behalf of the Libellee Declares that about three years ago he saw a receipt for one Negroe Woman for all demands Thomas Tucker had Isabella Capele for Mathew Silleys Estate and was acquainted with the hand writing of Thomas Tucker and believes it to be his hand

Also for the Libellees produce the last will and Testament of Benj: Capele and Eliz: the wife of Thomas Tucker in the Libelle Mentioned and the said Eliz: Silley & Mentioned in the said Capeles will is allowed to be one and the same person & not Diverse

Whereupon all and singular the pleadings allegations and Evidences on both parts being by the Court here fully weighed and Maturely deliberated It ~~[illegible]~~ Seems to the Judge here that the Summe of Nineteen pounds six shill: Sterl: ought to be taken as a part of Mathew Silleys Estate but forasmuch as it appears in Evidence that the said Benj: Capele by his last will and Testament devised unto the said Eliz: Silley four negroes and diverse other particulars to much more then the value of what appears to be the Bal: of Mathew Silleys Estate and for that the Estate of the said Benj: Capell appears to be insufficient to answer the said Legacies and the said Bal: of Mat: Silleys Estate ~~[illegible]~~ as a debt besides with the other Legacies and debts of the said Capell and also for that it seemes to the Judge here to have been the Intent of the Testator Capele to make the Legatee Silley full satisfaction for the Claime she had against him by leaving her those Legacies — It is therefore adjudged & ordered and ~~[illegible]~~ Decreed that the Libellee be dismist with reasonable Costs to which are adjudged to be paid by the Libellants to the Summe of

by the Court here adjudged & taxed ~~[illegible]~~
