God Deposeth that for some time past he hath heard Henelm Cheseldyne dcsd acknowledge his Complaint to be his wife and this Deponent saith that about a Small after the said Cheseldyne was presented for — Incontinency which was about five or six years ago a certain John Coode since dcsd told this Deponent that Mr Henelm Cheseldyne dcsd was Married — at last to Mrs Shippard and that they were Married in private to which this Deponent answered he was glad of it for that then there would be an End of all the Controversies or to that Effect and that afterwards the said Cheseldyne came with her publickly to Church and helped her off and on her Horse and shewed her the respect due to a wife And this Deponent further saith that on the day the said Cheseldyne made his will this deponent came to the House of the said — Cheseldyne and as soon as he came into the House he was told by several persons there that Mr Cheseldyne had just made his will and that at that time to the best of this Deponents knowledge by Sundry Questions and answers in discourse the said Cheseldyne seemed to be in his perfect Senses but weak and further this

Deponent saith not — Jurat Coram Nobis Rd Hopewell

The Deposition of Thomas Bolt —

Thomas Bolt of St Maries County Gent aged thirty nine years or thereabouts being sworne on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God ~~[illegible]~~ Deposeth that he was with Henelm Cheseldyne Late dcsd fifteen days and fourteen nights in the time of the Sickness wherein he dyed and that in all that time — he acknowledged her the Complainant to be his the said Cheseldynes wife and as often as he wanted her he would bid this Deponent call his wife to him as also Sundry times before alledging that he was presented for laying with his Own wife and by Imprecations protested that she was his Lawfull wife as much as his the said Deponents wife was his the said deponents wife and this Deponent further saith that he this Deponent was Married to his the said Deponents wife in a full Congregation at a private open Church in Charles County according to the Canons of the Church of England And this Deponent further saith that the night before the said Cheseldyne made his last will and Testament his brothers Grimsted & Coode with their wives came to the said Cheseldynes House — at which time he seemed to be very Sensible and told this Deponent he Intended to settle his worldly affairs and —
