In his perfect senses and talking about his House said he had taken a great deale of paines and trouble about it and that then he must leave it for his wife to finish and further saythe not

Richd Hopewell ⊗
Jurat Cram Hobis
Mark Jenifer ⊗

The Deposition of Mr. William Coode

William Coode of St Maries County Gent aged forty years or thereabouts being sworne on the Holy Evangelists of Allmighty God Deposeth that he was with Mr Randolph Chesldyne the most of the time during the sickness whereof he dyed and the night before he made his will this Deponent asked a certaine Thomas Bolt who was then present whether the said Chesldyne had made a will who answered no and that Mr. Chesldyne seemed uneasie if any body Moyned it to him Thereupon this Deponent asked the said Chesldyne if he had made a will who answered he had one writt and would sign it in the morning Thereupon this Deponent said to him the said Chesldyne that he supposed the said Chesldyne designed what he had for his wife and children who answered yes for who should I give it to else but then this Deponent asht

Asht him if she was his wife who turned and seemed angry at asking that Question But afterwards turned again and said doe you Question that Cousin Coode. Thereupon this Deponent said Sir If it should please God you should dye I wisht I might be Questioned he answered there is some plate on the Cupboard look at it there is both our names I should not have put it on Unless she was my wife and this Deponent further saythe that on the day the said Chesldyne dyed he made a Codicile to his will to which this Deponent Subscribed as an Evidence and that after this Deponent had signed as an Evidence he the said Chesldyne said to this Deponent you remember you borrowed three Buts of Cane of me and promised to pay it to Mr Forbes but says he pay it to nobody for I shall not live to Eat it or to that Effect and this Deponent saythe that to his apprehension at all the times before mentioned the said Chesldyne was in his perfect senses and further saythe not

Richd Hopewell ⊗
Jurat Cram Hobis
Mark Jenifer ⊗

The Deposition of Justinian Jourdaine

Justinian Jourdaine of St Maries County Gent aged Twenty three years or thereabouts being sworne on the Holy Evangelists of allmighty God Deposeth that he was