At a prerogative Court for probate of wills and granting Admcons in the Province of Mary land held on the 14th day of July (it being the second tuesday in the same month) at the City of Annapolis) Anno Dom 1719 —

Present

The Honble Thos Bordley Commissary Genll

Who Orders the doggett of Causes to be called over and proceeds thereon as follows

(viz.)

J: B — John Burles ..... } Libl Cltos ret. last Court
and
Hugh Herriken ... } agreed by Cons. that the action be continued till this Court but no One appearing to prosecute in the Queen it is Ordered by this Hon.d the Judge here to be struck off the doggett —

July Court —

L: G — Thomas Gray ... } Libl Pand. Ex.
and
T L — John Gray .... } Ordered Repl.d by this Court on hearing on file and answer — none filed —

Att the req.t of the procurator for the Complainant but the proctor for the def.t not appearing this Cause is continued till next Court

T L — Jacob and Thos Holland ... } Libell Cltos having
and
John Morris ..... } been ordered and spred in this Cause at the prayer of the Complainant the sheriff to whome the same was directed returns it filed — whereupon the deft appears and acknowledges the service thereof as likewise the Compll being present both acknowledge that the said action is agreed by Consent

Whereupon ordered by his Hon.r the Judge that it be so Entred and struck off the doggett