July 16 1729

Sir

When I writ to you yesterday it was only to let you know that Mr. Bladen was willing those things which I then Mentioned should be appraised for without the Consent, I could no more bring in them than I can the other things which I formerly gave you Information of which she will not yet allow me to Come at. I hope when I have produced every thing in my power to the Court appraisers I have Complyed with my Oath. Dear Sir I have for unless Mr. Bladen had produced those Cattle things I could not. Unless it had been done by forcing open doors which I suppose is Unthought for. That is what I then Meant was only to desire him to add those things to the former Inventory. As to your Coming Country Court the Ly affairs is not a Diversion to
