proposed Dr. Alexander Frazer of Annapolis and Mr. James Gordon to the this Respondent was very ready to accept of but has been informed that neither of them would be serviceable, this Respondent saith that in an Account now ready to be passed he gives Credit for Every the Effects of the Deceased to the time hath come to his hands and at all times shall be willing to pay so much of the Estate remaining in this Respondents hands upon the Petitioners giving this Respondent security as the Law Directs — This Respondent saith that said Larkin having been a Merchant had several things to the were not Vendable to the this Respond. is ready to deliver up upon Security given and prays they may be vested in Specie — But this Respondent saith that he hath not he yet Compleated his Administration and in Regard that there is very good Security tendered for the des Administration humbly prays that he may have a further time given him to Compleat the same — And that for the prevention of law suits he may detain so much in his hands as he is now threatned to be sued for or that he can make appear to be Due from the said Estate to Creditors for that this Respondent offered and was ready to pay the Ballance of the Estate (retaining so much thereof as he knew there was Demands upon him for) upon the Com-plainants giving any reasonable Security for the Indemnity of this Respondent he humbly prays to be hence Dismissed with his reasonable Cost
