Eod: Die Was exhibited from Cecil County The Depositions of John Spalding & Sarah his Wife in relation to the concealment of Richard Ansley's Estate taken by Virtue of a Comission issued out of the Prerogative Office dated 27th May last & directed to Mr Stephen Knight Deputy Comissary there which are ordered to be entered & follow in these Words (viz:)

The Depositions of John Spalding of Cecil County & Sarah his Wife the Widow & Relict of Richard Ansley late of Cecil County deceased in relation to the concealment of the said Deceased's Estate from John Dye of the aforesd County Admr of the said Ansley's Estate —

The Deponents solemnly declare that they nor either of them hath concealed any part of the said Deceased's Estate from the aforesd Admr. nor do they the Deponents nor either of them know of any concealment thereof by any Person whatsoever. But she the said Sarah saith that for the sustenance & support of her self and Children after the decease of the aforesd Richard while she took care & kept as well as she could together the effects of the said Deced & before the aforesd Administr. appraised the same, four small Hogs which were of the Deced's Chattles she did kill & expend, And that after she the said Sarah had renounced the Admr & assigned the same to ye aforesd John Dye as a Creditor on his promises of friendship & favour, & before he appraised the Effects of the said Deced wch he had long time neglected the other Hogs wch were of the Deced's died & were lost. And a certain William Burns did distrain of the Goods & Chattles of the Deced for rent of the plantation whereon the Deced in his Lifetime dwelt, and there, with the Constable and two sworn appraisers took and drove away one Horse, one Cow & Calf One Iron pot one frying pan one piggin and Ax, a wooden Ladle and a glass bottle, All which the aforesd Admr John Dye has been informed of, and nothing relating to the said Deced's Estate con=cealed, secreted or kept from his knowledge by these Deponents, And further they say not.
