Ad: To the Honourable Charles Calvert Esq. Comissary General of the Province of Maryland

The Petition of George Brown of Baltemore County planter

Humbly Sheweth

That Your Petitioner intermarried with Mary one of the Daughters & Representatives of Edward Stevenson Late of Baltemore County Planter deceased by means whereof he became entitled to a proportionable part of the Estate of the S.d Edw.d Stevenson that after the decease of the said Stevenson a certain Henry Satyr of Baltemore County planter intermarried with Elizabeth the Relict & Exec.x of the S.d Edward & became possessed of his personal Estate. That Your Pet.r has often demanded of the said Henry & Eliz.a a rateable part of the said Estate

(in their

in their hands of them but has met with nothing but ill language & bad treatment in lieu thereof Your petitioner further sheweth that he is advised that the said Henry Satyr & Eliz.a his Wife have not past such Accounts of the said Stevensons Estate as they are compellable to by Law

Wherefore he humbly prays Your Honour to grant him his Lordships Writ of Citation to be directed to the Sheriff of Baltemore County thereby commanding him to cite & Summon the S.d Henry & Eliz.a to be & appear before your Honour in this Honourable Court at a certain Day & under a certain penalty as well to shew cause why they have not past a final Account of the S.d Deced's Estate as why they have not payed to Your Petitioner in right of his Wife a rateable part of the S.d Deceds Estate And he will pray &c.
