24th: The following Petition was Exhibited from Talbot County and ordered to be entered viz: —

To the Honourable Charles Calvert Esq.r Commissary General of the Province of Maryland —

The Petition of Edward Tottell & Ann his Wife, John Hawkins & Deborah his Wife Surviving Executors of Robert Grundy late of Talbot County deced —

Humbly Sheweth

That Process issued out of the Prerogative Office against your Petitioners to appear in the said Office to shew Cause why they have not returned an Additional Inventory of the said deced his Estate.

That Deborah Hawkins one of the Executors whole Sole had a considerable Share in the Management of the said Estate and hath for some Time before the Return of the Process been unable to Travel by Reason of her being very big with Child & very near her Time of Lying in and is lately delivered by means whereof your Petitioners cannot imediately return the said Additional Inventory or Render an Account of the Said Estate

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that they may have Time till the Second Tuesday in July to Return the said Additional Inventory & that in the Interim Process may Cease

And they Will pray &c. —

24th: May 1731

Granted Cha: Calvert Com.ry Gen.l

To the Honourable Charles Calvert Esq.r Commissary General of the Province of Maryland.

The Petition of Edward Tottell & Ann his Wife Adm.rx of James Lloyd late of Talbot County Esq.r Deced —

Humbly

Humbly Sheweth

That your Petitioners have paid Sundry sums of Sterling Money to Sundry Merchants in Great Brittain in Satisfaction of Debts due from the said Deced to them being very well satisfied that they were Just and true but that your Petitioners have not as yet recd the Accounts thereof regularly proved in order to entitle your Pet.rs to an allowance thereof in an Account to be passed before Your Honour

That your Petitioners are informed that the Accounts so pround are arrived in Maryland but as yet not come to your Pet.rs Hands.

Your Petitioners further Shew that the Settlement of such Accounts depends upon the adjustment of the Estate of Robert Grundy late of Talbot County deced the said James Lloyd Esq.r being an Executor and Residuary Legatee of Robert Grundy an account of whose Estate cannot at present be adjusted.

Your Petitioners therefore pray that the now Ballance of the said James Lloyd Esq.r his Estate may not be transmitted to the County Court till the Second Tuesday of July next by which Time your Petitioners hope to Render an additional Account of the said Estate.

And they will pray &c. —

24th: May 1731

The aforegoing Petition is granted and the Petitioners have Time till July Commissarys Court to pass an Additional Account and unless the said Account be then past & Exhibited the Ballance of the Deceds Estate as it now appears is to be transmitted to the Next County Court to be sealed & disposed according to Law
