29th May The following Petition was Exhibited from S.t Marys County and ordered to be entered s.t —

To the Honble Charles Calvert Esq.r Commissary General of the Province of Maryland —

The Petition of Robert Salmond of S.t Marys County

Humbly Sheweth That one Joseph Hebb of S.t Marys County died intestate and administration of his Good & Chattles was Granted Alice Hebb his Widow who in his Life Time was indebted to your Petitioner after whose Death your Pet.r prosecuted the aforesaid Adm.tr in S.t Marys County Court for the aforesaid Debt & recovered Judgment against her —

Your Pet.r Likewise shews that the said Adm.tr thereafter departed this Life and Admon of all and Singular the Good and Chattles Rights & Credits unadministred which were of the said Joseph Hebb deced was granted to a Certain Thomas Hebb Whereupon your Pet.r sued his Writ of fa.fa. against the said Thomas Hebb why Execution should not issue against him on the aforesd Judgment whereupon he obtained Judgment for Execution to issue & thereupon a Writ of fa.fa issued against the Deced Effects which was returned nulla Bona — Your Petitioner therefore most humbly beseeches your Honour that he may have the Admon Bond of the said Joseph Hebb given by the said Thomas assigned him to enable him to recover his Debt aforesaid —

And Ly. Pet.r as in Duty Bound shall pray &c.

William Cumming for pet.r
