Citation having been formerly renewed against William Wofford Executor of John Raye late of Prince Georges County deceased to return a Compleat Inventory and make up a full Account of the said Deceased's Estate (at the instance and request of John Raye Legatee of the said Deceased) which Process was ordered to be struck off unless application be made for Renewment of which John Raye the Legatee aforesd. had Notice sent him from March Court and the same notice was renewed from May Court last and for that no application hath been made

It is ordered to be Struck Off.

Citation having been renewed against George Elliott and Patience his Wife Admrs. of William Buchner late of Baltimore County deceased to shew cause why they have not past an Account of the said Deceased's Estate (at the instance of Richard Colegate one of the Sureties on the Administration)

The Sheriff of Baltimore County aforesaid to whom the same was directed makes no return thereof — Nevertheless for that the said George Elliott and Patience his Wife appear and pass their Account of the said Deceased's Estate

The Process against them is ordered to be Discontinued.

Citation having formerly issued against Sarah Grantham Wife of William Grantham of Dorchester County to shew cause why she Detains the Effects of Joshua Flennerly late of Dorchester County deceased from Solomon Thomson and William Flennerly of the said County his Executors — It was ordered last Court that the Deputy Commry of Dorchester County take Mrs. Granthams Examination in the County and on her Refusal to be Examined that Citation should be renewed against her —

Pursuant to which order the Deputy Commissary aforesaid Transmits to this Court the following Deposition — Vizt.

(Dorchester)

Dorchester County June 4th. 1734

Then came before me the Subscriber Deputy Commissary of the above said County Sarah Grantham and she being duely and solemnly Sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God to declare what Goods Chattles and Credits she hath had or now hath in her hands or possession which did or now doth belong to the Estate of Joshua Flennerly deceased and whether she knows or Suspects any Concealment of any part or parcel of the said Estate by any person whatsoever

Did then and there Depose and say that she hath in her hands —

One Suit of Curtains, One new Bed Tick with a small quantity of feathers therein, Seven Yards of fine wide silk, One pair of new Shoes,

All which she says was given her by her father Joshua Flennerly in his Life time and further this Deponant saith not

Witness Jno. Bell — Sarah Grantham — Jno. Bell Deputy Comty of Dorch. County

At sight of the foregoing Deposition the Honble. Daniel Dulany Esqr. one of the Judges of this Court wrote as follows

The Examinant claiming a Property in the above Goods and the truth of such claim being properly determinable at Law and not in the Prerogative Court, the Parties are Referred to the ordinary courts of Justice if they think fit to proceed thereon — Annapolis June 13. 1734 — Dulany v. Comry

Whereupon the Process against the said Sarah Grantham is ordered to be Discontinued
