Mary Freene . . . . . ag.t Zebulon Freene . . . } Dorch.r

Be it Remembred that on the tenth day of July Anno Domini 1750 the Libellant Mary Freene Exhibited her certain Libel and complaint against Zebulon Freene which follows in these words Viz.t

Maryland ss. To the Honourable Daniel Dulany Esq.r Judge for Probat of Wills and granting Administrations within the Provence aforesaid

Humbly Complaining sheweth unto Your Honour Your Libellant Mary Freene of Dorchester County Widow on behalf of herself and Henry Freene of the County aforesaid an infant under the Age of Twenty one Years by the said Mary Freene his Mother; That Mary Freene of Dorchester County aforesaid Widow Mother of Freene of Dorchester County aforesaid lately deceased, (Husband of Your Libellant, and Father of Your Orator Henry Freene) being in her life time and at the time of her Death possest of a considerable Personal Estate Consisting of Houshold furniture of all sorts, a Stock of Cattle Horses Hogs and Sheep with a Crop of Corn and Tobacco and Sundry valuable Slaves, in and about the Twenty Eighth day of January last departed this Life Intestate after whose Death the aforesaid Goods and Chattles by Right, and by Law ought to have descended to the Widow and Children of the aforesaid Freene the Intestates only Son, But now so it is May it please Your Honour that a certain Zebulun Freene of Dorchester County aforesaid Planter, brother to the Intestates Husband when the Intestate was in her Extremity and last Minuts, came to her on her Death Bed a few Minuts before her Death, brought her a Paper to Sign and told her he had done what she had bid him to do, and askt her to Sign it, which by the Persuations and Insinuations of the said Zebulun without acquainting her with the true purport and contents thereof she did, which said pretended Will or writing, now lodged in this Honourable Court in order to be proved by the Subscribing Witnesses thereto, Your Libellants do alledge and intend to prove that afterwards and when the same was pretended to be read to her by the said

(Zebulun)
