Whereupon his Honour the Judge having carefully and Deliberately Considered the Evidence in this Dispute and heard all and Singular the allegations of both Parties doth Order Adjudge and Decree as follows vizt

Whereas it appears by the Will of Richard Acton Late of Baltimore County Deceased that he Bequeathed all his Personal Estate to his Wife and after her Decease to her two Daughters Margaret and Hannah Except a Gun and

Ten Pounds Bequeathed to his Son all which Personall Estate the Wife of the said Acton had the use and Profiten of during her Life which Seems to me to be all the Testator Intended for her by his Will and she being now dead the Right of Margaret & Hannah to the whole Personall Estate Except the said Legacy is unquestionable, I therefore order that Benjamin Burgess Cheney in whose hands the said Estate is delivered the same to the said Margaret and Hannah the Daughters and Legatees of the said Richard Acton, they giving him Security to Indemnify him. Given at Annapolis this 18th Day of July 1753

Appearing this Honour the Commissary General that Nothing Pending the order aforesaid Benjamin Burgess Cheney doth still Refuse to deliver up the effects aforesaid, It is therefore ordered by the Court here that an attachment do Issue against him the aforesaid Benjamin Burgess Cheney for his Contempt &c. Returnable to next Court, which is Issued accordingly

Citation Issued & order to the Sheriff of Somerset County against Jonathan Flemming Late of Somerset County Carpenter & William Handy Late of Worcester County Deceased to show Cause if any he hath why he doth not Return an Inventory of the said William Handy's Estate. Returnable to this Court

The Sheriff to whome the precept aforesaid was directed to wit the Sheriff of Somerset County made Return thereof Indorsed Summoned

But forasmuch as the Parties doth appear according to the Return made on the Citation it is Ordered by the Court that an attachment do Issue against the said Jonathan Flemming for his Contempt &c. Returnable to next Court. which is Issued
