Your Dollar's Opportunity

Your dollar's opportunity is now, today! Set it to work for you. Give it the task of multiplying itself. In doing so it will perform its part in the world affairs.

Every man's money should be making use of this opportunity. Farmers, for instance, can not only feed the world; through businesslike handling of their farms and businesslike handling of their incomes they can help to develop the world.

Thrift Is Patriotism

Saving is a form of serving. It is one of the biggest forms of national service—service to your country. Our first president said, "Economy makes happy homes and sound nations."

The way to start right is to start right now! Saving is as much a habit as spending or putting things off. Once formed, it is easy to continue. But unlike other habits, it is a good habit.

School News at the Caroline High School

English IV Class, have written a Shakespearean Review to leave to the lower classes. It consists of articles such as "The Theatre in Shakespeare's Time," and "Elizabethan London." Criticisms of his various plays and character sketches of all Shakespearean plays that they have studied in school.

The class in Science III took a field excursion to the ice plant, under the capable supervision of Mr. Rairagh, April 21. They found that the plant's capacity was ten tons and that the time required to freeze a cake was 48 hours. The impression prevailing that ice sometimes tastes of ammonia was shown to be untrue as the ammonia never actually comes in contact with the water. The machinery comes from York, Pa. The brine used in freezing is a 50 per cent solution.

Science I have as their project "Our Neighbors in Space." Each member of the class has received an interesting booklet from the Elgin Watch Co., giving illustrations of the various constellations, and expl anations of each. The class was very much interested in the total eclipse of the moon. The following data illustrates the phases of the eclipse in Denton.

Total eclipse on April 21-22; moon entered penumbra, April 21 at 11:57; entered shadow April 22, at 1:03; total eclipse began at 2:23; middle of the eclipse, at 2:44; total eclipse ended, 3:05; moon left shadow at 4:26; moon left penumbra, 5:32.

History IV is taking up the General Reconstruction Period after the Civil war. The instituting of National banks, and civil service commissions in the government are interesting topics of this period. The opening of the West was soon followed by transcontinental railroads.

History II arestudying the Reconstruction in Europe after 1815, or after Napoleon's downfall.

French I are deeply interested in various French newspapers recently obtained. The "Journal Etats-Unis," the French organ in America was very interesting. The class now subscribes to "Le Petit Journal" a French condensation of the current news.

Mathematics III are taking up the constructions of the various Rose Windows, found in European cathedrals. There were many pretty color combinations worked out in the finished windows drawn by the members of the class.

Mathematics II are thinking of producing an interesting little play, entitled "The Adventures of Monsieur X." The play shows how M. X was taken from the land of letters to the land of Algebray and gives his many encounters with simple equations and his final victory over quadratics.

The Manual Training class are very much interested in an inlaid checkerboard of holly and walnut being done by Theodore Orme, a Sophomore. The inlaying i a very difficult task as the pieces must fit perfectly to produce a good appearance.

English III have recently finished Macbeth and are now deeply engrossed in Ivanhoe. They were deeply impressed by some of the customs of England at the time of John's usurping the throne of Richard Coeur-de-Lion. They were also interested in the hatred of the Saxons for the Norman conquerors.

History I are taking up the rise of Macedon under Philip and Alexander the Great.

English I have interesting classes on Wednesday of oral recitations on articles in The Literary Digest. These classes are great aids to public speaking.

Latin II. The third year Latin class no wconsisting of six studious members has lived up to its reputation for speed. The first part of the year the class translated at an amazing rate and have not only finished the first four orations of Cicero, and have spent much time on latin composition, but have even done several chapters in Pro Archias. The class met their Waterloo when they struck the van guard of this oration. Cicero is at his best in this speech when he makes his plea in behalf of this great poet.

DEATH OF OCTOGENARIAN LEAVES BUT 4 COMRADES

William E. Lowe of McDaniel, Civil War Veteran

William E. Lowe, aged 80 years, one of Talbot county's well known and influential citizens, died at Sherwood Manor, the home of Mrs. Joshua G. Johnson, of Baltimoer, which regiment formed a part of the old Stonewall Jackson brigade. Mr. Lowe was in a number of engagements and in the battle of Gettysburg when his company was nearly annihilated, and was with Lee when he surendered. HEAVY VERDICT AWARDED AGAINST TALBOT SHERIFF

Convicted of False Arrest in the Federal Court

A verdict of $7,500 damages against Sheriff Charles M. T. Soulsby of Talbot county, and a verdict for one cent against State's Attorney Charles E. Tucker of Queen Anne's county, was awarded Joseph W. Hart of New Jersey, in the United States District Court, Baltimore, April 13th. The verdict was the outcome of a $25,000 damage suit against Sheriff Soulsby and State's Attorney Tucker by the New Jersey man for alleged false arrest.

In the jurys report, it was explained that the damages of one cent against Mr. Tucker was not due to any belief that Attorney Tucker had, in any way, been implicated in the alleged false arrest, and was not because the jury felt that Mr. Tucker had been a party to the incident, but was purely and solely because the jurymen, as individuals, felt that Mr. Tucker had been a party to the incident, but was purely and solely because the jurymen, as individuals, felt that Mr. Tucker should have ordered the arrest of Sheriff Soulsby. The verdict recommended that Mr. Tucker pay his proportionate part of the court costs, but Judge Rose ruled that this could not be done.

POPPY EMBLEM OF AMERICAN LEGION

The American Legion has adopted the poppy as its Memorial Day flower. On May 30 thousands of tiny red silk flowers will be distributed in America by the legion and other patriotic organizations.

The poppies—exact replicas of those which "blow on Flanders fields"—were made by war orphans of the American and French Children's League.. They were brought to this country by Mme. Anna E. Guerin who founded the league for the purpose of perpetuating the friendship between the nations which had its inception on the battlefield. The poppy is the league's national emblem, and the children are the self-constituted guardians of graves of the American soldier dead in France.

Bull-Dog Drummond

By CYRIL McNEILE

Author of "The Human Touch," "Michael Cassidy, Sergeant," etc.

A thoroughly exciting tale and a charming love story in which are delineated the remarkable adventures of "Bull-Dog Drummond" against a band of international criminals as sinister as any the world of fiction or actuality ever has produced. They mold everything to their purposes even utilizing Bolshevism and the discontent of the poor. Police and secret service agents are powerless against the genius of the arch criminal.

"Bull-Dog Drummond" who earned his title in the war, is thrown quite by accident into contact with the gang. His cool courage and resourcefulness developed in night raids and going "over the top" at the front, give him extraordinary daring — but to tell you more would spoil the story.
