Maryland Set

At a Prerogative Court held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of May being the twelfth Day of the same Month in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred fifty two

Present

The Honorable Daniel Dulany Esq. Commissary General

Who ordered the Docquet of Causes to be called out and proceeds therein as follows Viz

Citation having formerly issued & Order against William Stones Admr. of John Stones Late of Somerset County deceased to show Cause why he does not return an Inventory and pass an Account of the said Deceased's Estate (at the Instance and Request of the Representatives of the said Deceased) It was ordered that the Deputy Commissary of Somerset County should take the Depositions of the Evidences in Relation to some Matters in Dispute and return the same to the Court which Depositions are returned and this Cause is continued till next Court

Citations renewed & Order to the Sheriff of Dorchester County against Co. Joseph Ennalls Admr. of the several Deceased Persons following Schultool, Francis Sanders, Samuel Hooper, Joseph Roger, William Burns, James Evans and Roger McKinney to show Cause why he does not return Inventories of the said Deceased's Estates returnable to this Court Of which the Sheriff makes no Return

And this Cause is contd till next Court

Citation having again renewed & Order to any one of the Coroners of Dorchester County against Bartholomew Ennalls of the County aforesaid Admr. of Thomas Burditt late of the same County deceased to show Cause why he does not return an Inventory of the said Deceased's Estate which to January Court last It was ordered by Reason of the Severity of the Weather the same should stand continued on the Docquet untill March Court And further continued untill this Court And now at this Court the said Ennalls returns an Inventory and this Process is ordered to be discontinued

Attachment having again renewed & Order to the Sheriff of Dorchester County against Ennalls Hooper Admr. of John Dunbar to show Cause why he does not return an Inventory of the said John Dunbar's Estate returnable to January Court last It was ordered by Reason of the Severity of the Weather that the same should stand continued on the Docquet untill March Court And at March Court it was ordered that the Attachment should be renewed which accordingly issued returnable to this Court And now at this Court the Inventory is returned And this Process is discontinued

Attachment having again renewed & Order to the Sheriff of Dorchester County against Andrew Dagg Executor of Edward Evans deceased to show Cause why he does not return an Inventory of the said Deceased's Estate returnable to January Court last It was ordered by Reason of the Severity of the Weather to stand continued on the Docquet till March Court last And further continued till this Court And now at this Court the Inventory being returned the Process is ordered to be discontinued