Unto the Commissary General of the Province of Maryland. —

The Representation of James Bisscott for himself & John Matthews Adm.rs of the Estate of David Bisscott Deceased —

Humbly Sheweth forth That upon the Decease of David Bisscott James Bisscott his eldest Brother & Heir being sensible That his Personal Estate would fall far short of the Debts due and that so far as unpaid they would fall upon him to pay as having Assets by the real Estate . . . Disputed the administration with Ann Bisscott the Widow as it so highly concerned him to see that the most should be made of the personal Estate to save himself from being liable for the Residue — That to Indemnify Ann Bisscott of any Profit she could procure by the Adm.n James Bisscott Agreed to pay her 10 ₩ Cent of the whole value of the personal Estate as Conducted and to satisfy her that all Justice should be done her in her Commissions & charging the Estate at full value That John Matthews as Trustee for her should be joined in the Administration whom (over & above the 10 ₩ Cent to be paid her) the aforesaid James Bisscott was to pay for his Trouble. That thereupon the Commissary Granted Administration to James Bisscott & John Matthews and under the Oath of the Estate was Appraised Conducted &c. . . . . .
