DOG CAUGHT HIS OWN FISH

Sportsman Given Authority for Remarkable Story That Appears in a London Periodical.

The London "zoo" fishing cat which so steadfastly refuses to show itself—except at meal times—has a rival in the fishing dog, says London Answers.

A sportsman was on the west coast of Madagascar, when he observed a dog come out of the thick bush in front of him and trot briskly down to the edge of the sea. When it had got a little way into the water it stopped and remained perfectly still, as a heron might when fishing at home. Its glance was never once taken off the water.

Suddenly it thrust its head into an oncoming wave, and reappeared with a large fish in its mouth. Quickly taking its capture ashore it squatted down and made a hearty meal. After a while the fishing operation was repeated, and it was evident to the witness of the incident that the dog made a regular practice of it.

Stuff He Put Away at Coney Was Too Much Even for Stomach of Healthy Boy.

"I couldn't come to work yesterday," said Whitey, the than whomest of office boys. "I was at Coney the day before an' I et too much."

"Heaven's sakes, what did you eat?" asked the office manager.

"Well," said Whitey, "first we had peanuts, and then we had three hot dogs apiece and a coupla ice cream cones. Then we had some popcorn and salt water kisses and red lemonade, and then we pushed names on a pushboard for boxes of candy, and I won a box, and we et that; they was chocolates, and then we had some sassaparilla, because just before that we had some more peanuts, and they was kinda dry, and finally we finished it off with a banana split. After that we didn't have no more money, so we didn't eat no more except when a fellow treated us to a hot fudge sundae and bought us some more peanuts afterward.—New York Sun.

HER FRIENDS DISHEARTENED

Troubles Disappear When She Takes Tanlac, and Nerves Now Are as Steady as Can Be—General Health Splendid.

"I was on the verge of a collapse and was actually afraid to leave the house, but I am overjoyed now at the way Tanlac has restored my health so perfectly," declared Mrs. Cora M. Jackson, 504 Mulberry St., Terre Haute, Ind."

"I was almost a nervous wreck, and at times for anyone to even talk to me upset me completely. Even at night I could not get easy and quiet and would lie wide-awake, hardly able to sleep at all, and often just got up out of bed, I was so restless. Nervous headaches often came on me and frequently lasted for days at a time. Then I had rheumatism so bad in my joints I was almost helpless. My legs and elbows hurt fearfully and sometimes I just ached all over. There seemed to be no relief for me, my friends were all worried and I was almost disheartened.

"But, happily for me, one of my friends suggested that I try Tanlac. I never will forget how I began to improve and now I think it is wonderful that I am feeling so well and strong. My nerves are just as steady as can be and I haven't a rheumatic pain about me. I am in just splendid health and wish everybody knew what a grand medicine Tanlac is."

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

The Power of an Endless Life

By REV. GRANT STROH

Correspondence Department, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

TEXT.—. . . Who is made . . . after the power of an endless life. For he testifieth, Thou art a priest forever after the order of Melchisedec.—Heb. 7: 15, 16, 17.

More than five thousand catalogued books have been published upon the subject of the future life. A distinguished publisher once said that if the word "heaven" was in the title of a book it was almost sure to be a good seller. Everybody has a personal interest in the mysteries of the life beyond the grave "Thou art a priest forever after the order of Melchisedec." Not of the order of Aaron, or after the law of a carnal commandment. Christ's priestly work was not completed when He offered Himself as a sacrifice for sin upon the cross. His intercessory work for us is continued in heaven. It is going on now. The Aaronic priesthood was earthly, temporary and imperfect. It came to an end. Not so the priesthood of Christ. He is a priest forever, after the power of an endless life.

In Christ there is neither changing nor aging. Unceasingly His work continues for us within the veil whither He has gone. "He ever liveth to make intercession for us." In the power of His resurrection life Christ continues to intercede and to work for us, in our behalf, and also within us.

Salvation Not Separate From the Savior.

Salvation is not an outward, objective thing or possession. Eternal life is ours only because Christ is a living savior. He made atonement for our sins and is now seated at the right hand of God as our high priest, but He also abides within us in the person and the power of the Holy Spirit. Only thus can He meet our needs, only thus can we know the life more abundant, the life that is strong and victorious.

Through Christ we too may live a resurrected life, a life that is as endless as His. This implies, for us, future and endless development. We can never attain unto infinity but we can always be moving towards it. For those who are in Christ a life is in store that is limitless in its unfolding possibilities.

That uncircumscribed life will have unlimited possibilities of knowledge. In this life our knowledge is limited upon every side. Over yonder we shall know as we are known, and natural and physical barriers will all be removed. Present knowledge will be added to indefinitely and boundlessly.

Every quality and capacity of the soul is capable of measureless development. The endless life will afford the opportunity. We carry with us beyond the grave only memory, character and capacity. Gifts that have lain dormant here will be freed there. Opportunities that have been denied us here will be granted us there. Ample scope in the heavenly sphere for every heaven-born longing or ambition!

No present life seems complete. Think, too, of all the inequalities, of all the hedged-in lives, of all of those just beginning and suddenly cut off. Their chance is wholly in the future. If right with God and Christ here they will have abundant opportunity in the life to come. God is a just God. There will be a great evening up in the next life.

A young woman who was giving abundantly of her means, her time and her strength to help a little mission church, was remonstrated with. She replied: "It is my investment. My brother is a business man; works day and night. Every cent goes into his business. He thinks, eats, and sleeps business. Why? He says that some day it will pay him big dividends. And that is what I am doing," she said, "putting my life into that little mission." Don't you suppose that she, too, will some day draw big dividends?

The Present Life Resembles a Studio.

The present life has been likened to a studio, with its artists' materials, disorder perhaps, unfinished work, mere suggestions of the finished product. We must visit the picture gallery to really judge the artist. People sometimes impatiently judge God by His unfinished specimens of redemption which they see here. Wait and visit the heavenly gallery, where beautifying processes will have abundant time to come to perfection.

It pays to do the right, to live nobly, to suffer wrongfully, to endure hardship. It would pay if there were no future life. But there is, and we are encouraged to keep it in view and to live in its light.

Fill up each hour with what will last;
Buy up the moments as they go;
The life above, when this is past,
Is the ripe fruit of life below.

Jesus Christ was crucified in weakness, was buried, but was raised in the power of an endless life. All who know Him and the power of His resurrection must also know the fellowship of His sufferings. We must walk the path He walked until we too are received up into glory.

THREW FLOWERS AND GEMS

London Crowd Benefited by Woman's Enthusiasm Over the Ending of the Great War.

During the peace rejoicings one night in London several guests standing at the upper windows of a West End restaurant began to throw roses down to the crowds packed in the street below. A woman in evening dress, after throwing out numbers of roses, took a bracelet from her arm and tossed it to the people, following this with a ring from her finger. Then, after throwing more roses, she took the ornaments from her hair and threw these also into the struggling mass of people below.

An elderly man at an adjoining window threw out several spoons and forks, and then, finding nothing else at hand, threw an apple which was deftly caught and promptly returned, striking the window close by, but, fortunately, without breaking the glass.

The women then began to throw out treasury notes, wadding them into small balls and flinging them one by one to the excited crowd. After getting rid of seven or eight notes, she expressively spread out her hands to indicate that she had nothing more, and was loudly cheered.
