(No. 4)

Sr. I received your Letter with the Account of Sales of 6 Hogsheads of Tobo. I shall you back your Price & W is much lower than at London I observe in your Account a deduction of 6 ℔ ct. and another of 10 ℔ Cent & 10 ℔ for Draught to the former is 50 ℔ ct. the Latter is 100 ℔ ct. more than they Charge at London — I have likewise Recd. the Goods you sent me & Capt. Good Consisting of three Articles two of them I am very Well satisfied with; but the third which is a pr. of Course Boots Charged £1. 4/ which Certainly must be a Mistake or the Northmen must be a rogue to Charge Double what they are worth, for I can buy as good Boots in Our Store from 10/ to 12/ therefore hope you'll Rectify that Mistake and give my Account Credit for it — I've sent you by Capt. Good Tobo. of Mr. Tobo. I think, as Clean and large as ever I made for a Second Tryall and if that does not Answer I must give Over Sending over any more to your parts I hope your particular care in the Sales of it as it Such Tobo. as I've Mentioned Will be Wanting which will amply Reward Our further Correspondency. —
