Jacob Bond at the Same Time files here into Court the following Paper

To the Honourable Charles Goldsborough Esq. Comdy General

The Remonstrance of Jacob Bond of Balt County

Humbly Sheweth The following to be his Legal reasons why Daubney Buckler Partridge of the County aft. may not untill a further hearing be admitted to have a final account Settled and made of the Estate of Wm Partridge All which are humbly Submitted to your Honour to Wit

First Because he hath not hitherto rendered a True Account of his Brother's Estate to which he is Largely indebted himself as may be fully made appear by the Evidence of Joseph Taylor and of John Ennor

Secondly Because he hath not yet accounted for Moneys Lent him by & paid by his Said Brother for him, which may be made to appear by the Evidence of his Son William.

Thirdly Because has Wrongfully charged his Deceased Brother's Estate with Rents not Due

And Lastly Because he has made use of Moneys Deposited in England altho' there were Assets Sufficient to Clear the Estate.
