THE RULES—NO "HIDDEN JOKERS"—A FAIR, SQUARE, ABOVE BOARD DEAL FOR ALL

THE RULES

This contest opens September 8th, and will close Saturday, October 29th, 3 p. m., 1921. (Publisher reserves the right to extend the closing date until Saturday, November 5th, 3 p. m., or Saturday, November 12th, 3 p. m., notice of such extension to be given all candidates not later than October 22d.)

Only one nomination ballot counted to any one candidate.

Candidates, or their friends may clip as many of the 100 vote ballots from the weekly issues of The American Union as they wish, and send them in. The 100 vote coupons expire on the various dates printed thereon.

Candidates may solicit subscriptions ANYWHERE.

Candidates may be aided by as many friends, or relatives, as they can secure to take subscription receipt books and solicit subscriptions in their behalf.

The subscription rate of The American Union is $1.00 a year, payable in advance. Canada, $1.50.

No votes will be issued, excepting vote coupons issued with cash subscriptions secured, extra votes issued from time to time as specified in the extra vote schedule printed in this issue, and the 100 vote coupons printed in each issue of The American Union.

New subscriptions, renewals, and collections of any past due accounts gives votes for the candidates securing the business and turning it in to The American Union.

New subscribers or old ones renewing, may pay directly to The American Union, and vote for any candidate the subscriber wishes, or the subscriber can pay the candidate in person and the candidate can bring it to The American Union office.

There will be no "doubling up" of candidates, pooling of votes, or transferring of votes from one candidate to another. Votes once issued with cash subscriptions cannot be transferred to another candidate after the subscription money has been turned in to The American Union.

All information, receipt books, circular letters, sample copies of The American Union, etc., furnished free of charge.

Until October 4th, no candidate will be permitted to vote more than 100,000 votes issued with cash subscription payments in any one issue of The American Union. Any issue missed can be made up in the following issue. All subscriptions secured must be turned in to The American Union office at least once each week, and the cash secured with the subscriptions turned in with the subscribers' names, so we can start the paper or credit old subscribers with payments made. Newspaper coupons must be voted prior to expiration date printed on them.

The American Union reserves the right to reject the name of any undesirable candidate entered.

Any man, woman, boy or girl, (white) of good character, residing in Caroline or adjacent counties, is eligible to compete.

Any candidate who may stir up dissension or dissatisfaction among the candidates is subjected to being dropped at once.

In case of a tie, identical prizes will be awarded those tying.

In case of a dispute the Campaign Manager shall have the final decision.

The candidate polling the HIGHEST VOTE will be awarded the $610 Chevrolet Touring Car; the second highest vote, the $150 in Cash or a $150 Talking Machine; the third highest vote, a $40 South Bend or Hamilton Watch. These are known as the Grand Prizes. Special cash prizes aggregating $50 will be given away from time to time. Any active candidate competing to the end of the contest, and failing to win one of the four grand prizes, or a special cash prize, and who turns in at least $25 in cash subscription business, will be given 10 per cent. on all the non-prize winning candidate turns in. By "an active candidate competing to the end," we specifically mean one who turns in at least three (3) yearly subscriptions, or their equivalent, during each week of the last three weeks of the contest.

The final count and awarding of the prizes will be made by a committee of Caroline county business or professional men, and their findings shall be final.

Candidates entering this campaign agree to abide by these rules herein set forth, and such additional rulings as may be found necessary from time to time.

No church, lodge, school, or society can compete as an organization. This is a campaign for individuals.

Make all checks and money orders payable to The American Union.

No promises made by any person, and no statement made outside of these rules and other information set forth in this issue shall be considered as authorative by any person. The Contest Manager has absolute charge of this campaign from beginning to end.

Address all matters relative to the contest to The Contest Manager, The American Union, Denton, Md. Or PHONE The American Union. The Contest Manager can be found at The American Union office any week day from 8 a. m., until noon, and from 2 to 5 p. m.
