prejudice or weaken the Intention of the said Alexander Urquhart the Defendant. Therefore I the said Charles Goldsborough the Judge aforesaid having heard Counsel in this behalf do hereby Pronounce, Decree, Declare, and Adjudge That the Instrument or Writing aforesaid which was exhibited and filed in the Registry of this Court & is proved by the Witnesses aforesaid and which was after the Death of the said John Urquhart found in his Box or Case was and is the true, proper and last Will & Testament of the said John Urquhart Rightly and duly made so far as the same relates to the Personal Estate of the said John Urquhart and never annulled or Revoked by the said John Urquhart as appears to me. And for as much as the Persons of one Scott and his Son or either of them or their or either of their Christian Names (to which Son it appears by the Depositions of several of the Witnesses a Devise of five Pounds Sterling was mentioned & made in and by the aforesaid last Will and Testament of the aforesaid John Urquhart) are not certainly and sufficiently described distinguished and proved by any of the Witnesses in their Depositions whereby it remains uncertain from their said Depositions who the said Person is or what is his Name to whom the said Devise was made, nor is the Christian Name of one Lant (to whom also it appears by the Depositions of the said Witnesses a Devise of five Pounds Sterling was mentioned and made in and by the said last Will & Testament of the said Jno Urquhart) sufficiently proved by two Witnesses so that it is uncertain from their said Depositions who the said

Lant is or what is his Name And it being fully and clearly proved by several of the Witnesses aforesaid whose Depositions are remaining in this Court that the following Devises were mentioned and made in and by the said last Will and Testament of the said John Urquhart That is to say to Peter Urquhart twenty Pounds Sterling to James Urquhart five Pounds Sterling and to the aforesaid Alexander Urquhart the Defendant all his the said Jno Urquharts Bills Bonds, Notes Money and all his Tobacco and all the remainder of his whole Estate Therefore the Judge aforesaid do hereby pronounce Decree and Declare for the force and Validity of the said last Will & Testament of the said John Urquhart so far as the same relates to the Personal Estate of the said John Urquhart and for the force and Validity of the several and respective Devises aforesaid to the aforesaid Peter Urquhart James Urquhart and Alexander Urquhart the Defendant of those Parts of the Personal Estate of the said John Urquhart made and devised by him to them respectively in and by the last Will and Testament aforesaid of the said John Urquhart as the same are and stand proved by divers of the Witnesses aforesaid as appears by their said Depositions, And I do hereby Order Decree, Determine and Adjudge that the several and respective Devises aforesaid of those Parts of the said John Urquharts Personal Estate as were devised by him in and by his said last Will and Testament to the aforesaid Peter Urquhart, James Urquhart and Alexander Urquhart the Defendant as appear and are mentioned in the Depositions aforesaid of the said Witnesses and the same Depositions so thereof as aforesaid by them made are and shall be taken to be of the same force Validity & Effect as the same last Will and Testament of the said John Urquhart would or

(could)