Will Move to Town

W. W. Newcomer, who for some time past has been manager of the Farmers Supply Company store, but who lived on a farm on the Burrsville road, sold the farm Monday to Mr. John Shaffer, of Indiana County, Pa., and will move to town in the near future. Mr. Shaffer has two brothers, George and Samuel, who live near the farm which he purchased.

Taking Cruise

Mr. Cecil Blake, who during the war, enlisted in the Naval Reserves, returned to active duty last Saturday morning for a period of 15 days to serve his time in order that he might fulfill the requirements of his enlistment. Mr. Blake is aboard the U. S. S. Cheyenne and expects a very nice cruise.

No More Nights Out

"As for that bachelor girl who got married the other day."

"Well?"

"Was it a case of true love?"

"Apparently so. She surrendered her latch key."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Rev. V. E. Hills made a business trip to Milford and Lincoln, Del., this week.

The Love Point Ferry.

The Love Point Ferry Company, which plans a service between Baltimore and Love Point, will begin its service September 15, according to an announcement by the company's officials. The company has chartered a steamer—the Riverside of Baltimore— and will use it for passenger and automobile transportation. The establishment of this ferry will make the third across-the-bay service, the others being the Claiborne-Annapolis Ferry Line, Inc., which operates between Claiborne and Annapolis and the Rock Hall ferry, which operates between Bay Shore and Rock Hall. The Love Point Company's steamer will accommodate 20 to 25 automobiles besides the passengers, and in the spring it is the intention of the management to put on a boat that will carry 75 machines. The corporation invited about 500 of the leading men from Talbot, Caroline and Queen Anne's counties to an outing on the bay last Monday. These gentlemen were entertained at dinner at the hotel at Love Point and then given an excursion down the Chesapeake. A good band from Baltimore furnished the music. The Eastern Shore is represented on the board of directors of the new company by Georgeg C. Moore, of Talbot; Clayton Wright and James Bright, of Queen Anne, and Charles E. Stewart, of Caroline.

29th Division History

The history of Maryland's 29th Division is now on the market. The history begins with the mobilization of the National Guard into the regulars and goes through the times with the boys at camp, overseas and in the trenches, bringing them back home and discharged. This Division was under the command of Major-General Martin and included National Guard organizations from Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia, and New Jersey. Any one desiring copies may obtain the necessary information from Mr. Louis Dukes.

LONDON STILL LARGEST CITY

British Capital Has a Population Estimated at 7,476,168

London is still officially the largest city in the world. Census figures for 1921 announced show that in the area of 695 square miles known as Greater London there are 7,476,168 inhabitants.

Greater New York, comprising the five boroughs, or 315 square miles, had a population of 5,621,151, according to the 1920 federal census, although the latest figures place the persons in the Metropolitan district of New York is estimated at more than 8,000,000.

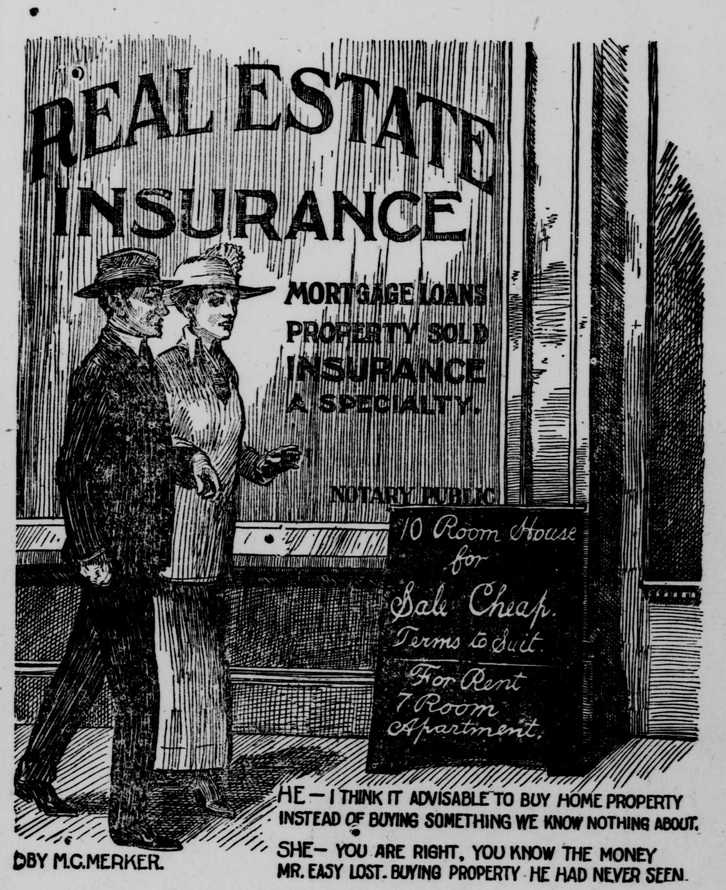

HEADS NATURE COLONY IN SHADOW OF N. Y.

New York folks aren't as far removed from nature as some folks think. Sixty of them, headed by L. M. Littauer, who has ideas all his own regarding too many clothes, being undesirable, moved across the Hudson to near Plainfield, N. J., and established "Free-acres," where no blue laws are recognized and all return to Adam and Eve apparel—or nearly so.
