Judgment between William Reynolds of West Nottingham in the County of Chester and province of Pennsylvania Executor of the Testament and last will of the within Joseph Bass deceased the party Libellant and Complainant and promoting the said Business of the one part and the afs.d Charles Orrick the Administrator aforesaid the party against whom the said Business is promoted on the other part and the parties afs.d by their respective proctors lawfully appearing before me in Judgment and the proctor of the said William Reynolds praying Sentence to be given and Justice to be done to his party and the proctor of the said Charles Orrick also earnestly praying Justice to be done to his party and having fairly carefully and diligently searched into and considered of the whole proceeding held and done in this Business and having observed all and singular the matters and things that by Law in this behalf ought to be considered I have thought and do think fit to proceed to the giving of my definitive Sentence or final decree in this Business in manner and form following to wit for as much as by the act Acted deduced alledged Exhibited — propounded proved and Confessed in this Business I have found and it doth evidently appear unto me that the Proctor of the said William Reynolds hath sufficiently and fully founded and proved his Intention deduced in a certain Allegation and last will and Testament of the said Joseph Bass deceased and other Pleadings Depositions and Exhibits given in Exhibited and Admitted on his Behalf in this Business and so remaining in the Registry of this Court which said Allegation and last will and Testament of the said deceased and other matters propounded Exhibited and Admitted in this Business State and will have taken as if here read and Inserted) for one to pronounce as hereinafter mentioned and that Nothing at least nothing effectual hath on the part and behalf of the said Charles Orrick been Excepted deduced Exhibited propounded proved or confessed in this Business which may or ought in any wise defeat prejudice or weaken the Intention of the said William Reynolds Therefore I the said Charles Goldsborough the Judge aforesaid having heard Counsel in this behalf do hereby pronounce (decree)

Decree and Declare that the aforesaid Joseph Bass the Testator in this Cause deceased whilst Living being of sound and perfect mind Memory and Understanding rightly and duly made his last will and Testament
