at said place all Hogges in open which they valued at £10.0 the Deponent further saith that one of the eleven Hogg was very poor at that Time, and hath Since been told had been thrown out of the pen — Deponent further Says that one other Hogg was then killed this Deponent Seeing the Hogg hanging at a Tree and Supposes might weigh 90 or 100 lb — Deponent Says that he saw no Hogg killed and no fees, as he supposes for the use of the Family — and further Saith not

Sworn to in Court

John McCoy. —

Eli Wallace Recorder.

And also the Following Deposition and Acknowledgement Viz

Ann Bass being Sworn to depose the Truth of her Knowledge Doth Say that all the crop of Corn that was made by Joseph Bass and Left in his crib at his death Except 12 or 13 Bushells which She Sold to Charles Orrick was used and consumed in her Family, the Family Consisting of herself, Seven Negroes 4 Horses Hogs and Cattle which Left new & from 12th day of April till Some time in November and this Deponent further Says that there were Several Hogs put up to fatten but doth not remember the Number all which Said Hogs this Deponent did Kill except one that died — and she further remembers that James Buchanan Bought some of the Corn from her but doth not remember how much and further Says that there was 5 Bushels of wheat in the House of the Deceased at the time of his Death which she did make use of and that all the Hogs which were fattening in the pen did belong to the Estate of Joseph Bass. —

And further Saith not — sworn before

Anne her ✗ mark Bass

Eli Wallace Recorder

Whereupon considering the Allegations of both Plaintiff and Defendants his Honour the Judge Doth order and Decree that said Suit being be discharged without Day; that Henry Baker return to William Reynolds as Exr to the Deceased 15 lb of Wool and the two Calves mentioned in his Affidavit or the value of them, and he thereupon discharged employing the fees accruing on this prosecution: and that John McCoy pay unto Said William Reynolds the value of 32 lb of meat and one Hogg mentioned in his Deposition, and that if Mr. Wm. Reynolds doth not by Next Court disprove to have had Notice of the Effects being in said McCoys Hands, the aforesaid William Reynolds to pay the accruing on this Citation, and that this Cause as to McCoy be stand Continued to next Court —

(disprove)