Dr. Thomas C. Frame Dead

Dr. Thomas Clayton Frame, aged 81 years, one of the best known men in lower Delaware, died at Dover on September 26th. He retired from the active practice of medicine more than twenty-five years ago. He was a literary genius and wrote many newspaper articles for city and local papers under the nom-de-plume of "Hamlet."

He knew the early history of Delaware possibly better than any historian of recent years; was the son of Robert Frame and Jeannette Clayton, the latter a daughter of the late Chief Justice Clayton; was born in Dover in a house on the Green and died at the home of his son, Thomas Clayton Wright, Jr., Dover Green, a member from Kent County.

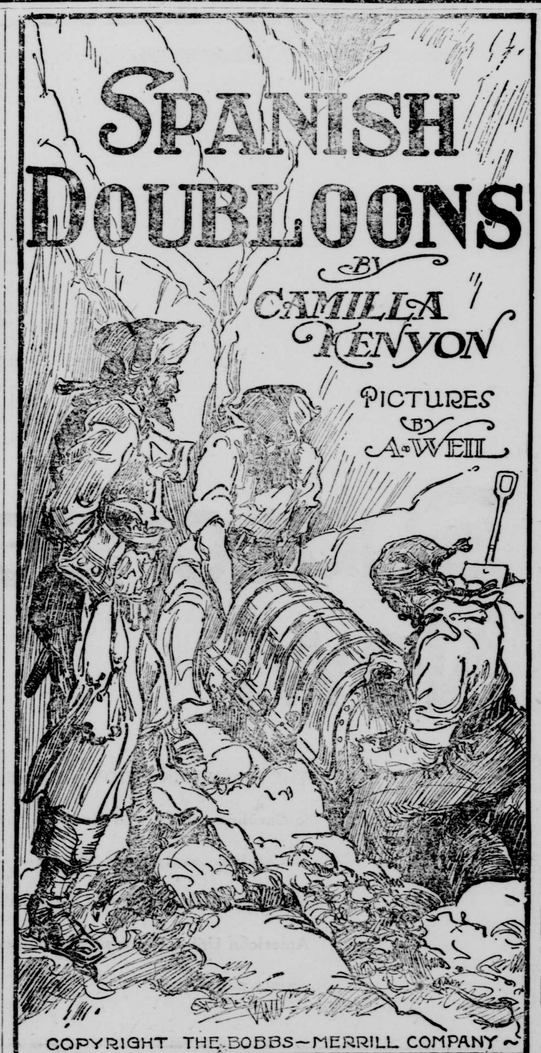

He was a graduate of Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., William and Mary College, Virginia, and of the University of Pennsylvania, in both medicine and law; also was graduated from the University of Edinburgh, in Scotland, in medicine. After his graduation in Scotland he traveled extensively in Europe and had a store of knowledge of the world.

He is survived by his wife, one son, Thomas Clayton Frame, Dover, and two grandchildren, Clara and Jeannette Frame.

MORE THAN 200 STRIKES SETTLED SINCE MARCH BY LABOR DEPARTMENT

Washington, Oct. 12.—The Department has made a request for a special appropriation to extend the work of its conciliation and mediation bureau. The present appropriation for this work is $100,000 a year. Secretary of Labor Davis says the bureau is self-sustaining. During the six months of his administration, it has adjusted more than 200 cases of strikes, lockouts and threatened strikes, involving 450,000 workers directly and nearly a million indirectly. Seventy-five per cent of the cases settled were adjusted without a stoppage of work. The Secretary of Labor states that in one case alone the prevention of a strike in a very large industry saved the government $50,000 in profit taxes which would have been lost had the industry been compelled to close. The loss in wages and profits which result from strikes mean a loss to the government in income and profit taxes. Preventing this loss by adjusting labor difficulties will, in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor, yield the government in taxes an amount far in excess of the appropriation asked for the work of mediation.

The man who prides himself on understanding human nature unsually doesn't include woman nature.

IT MAY be presumptuous to compare any story with the immortal "Treasure Island," but there is a real basis for it here, for the narrative does deal with treasure, pirates and a Pacific island in an uncommonly delightful way.

In thrills, it must yield to its great predecessor; in humor, it is at least a good second; in variety and up-to-dateness, it has the advantage.

It is a real treasure hunt with the unique quality, giving rise to delicious humor, that the hunters are led by women. It is a genuine treat.

G. O. P. PLATFORM AS ADOPTED AT STATE CONVENTION

Strongest Document Yet Framed for National Voters

The Republican party platform as adopted by the State Convention in session at the New Lyceum Theatre in Baltimore, recently, is as follows:

1. We declare our full confidence in President Harding, and in the remarkably strong Cabinet of Republicans he has summoned about him. We approve the steps being taken toward the restoration of Constitutional government and commend the constructive rebuilding and reorganization of the structure of government and finance so badly wrecked during the eight years of the previous National administration.

A Republican Congress has reduced the permanent military establishment while providing an adequate civilian reserve; has effected millions in savings; has passed the budget law, and is methodically proceeding to reduce and reapportion more justly the burden of taxation, the legacy, not so much of the war itself as of the waste in its conduct.

2. We approve the declaration of peace by Congress, and the negotiation by President Harding of a treaty free from European alliances.

3. We look forward with confidence to the advancement of international peace and the reduction of the burdens of taxation through President Harding's disarmament conference.

Women Welcomed

4. We welcome the participation of women in the affairs of the Republican party and earnestly favor an amendment to the State Constitution granting them in every particular full equality with men. We will support all legislation which will promote the welfare of women and children.

5. We favor any changes in the primary election law that may be needed to make it a more effective means of promoting representative government through the intelligent expression of the popular will, but oppose any amendment which will deprive the voters of this State, including the great new body of women voters, of their responsibility in public affairs.

6. We denounce the Ku Klux Klan and all propaganda which appeals to religious and radical prejudice, and favor the passage and enforcement of all laws necessary to stamp out masked violence, lynch law and usurpation of the power and sovereignty of the State.

For Fewer Elections

7. We advocate a reduction in the number of elections with a consequent saving of the enormous cost thereof and suggest the entire feasibility of holding county and State elections, concurrent with Congressional and Presidential elections, thus eliminating the present odd-year elections.

8. We continue to demand the repeal of the declaration of intention and affidavit of removal acts—the cherished trick laws of the Democratic State machine, which make it difficult for bona-fide residents of Maryland interested in her welfare to gain and maintain the right to vote.

9. In the campaign of 1917 the Republican party promised annexation to Baltimore. The manner in which it kept that pledge despite the bitter Democratic opposition, is an absolute assurance that it sympathizes with Baltimore's present desire for increased representation in the General Assembly. The party pledges its support to such an increase as will be fair to the city and at the same time safeguard the rights of the less populous rural sections of the State.

We propose that Baltimore city shall be entitled to a Legislative district for each portion of its population as shall equal the population of the most populous country in the State, and that each district so constituted shall be entitled to one Senator and one member of the House of Delegates for each 20,000 of the inhabitants of said district; provided, however, that under no conditions in the future shall the representation of Baltimore city in either Senate or House of Delegates exceed 35 per cent. of the membership in either body.

Board of Parole

10. The work of the Board of Parole should be assigned to the Board of Prison Control and the Parole Board and its field officials abolished. The budget act as it stands is not complete. It checks extravagant appropriations by the General Assembly but does not prevent wasteful expenditures of funds which come directly into the hands of various State departments; nor does it prevent the Governor from diverting budget appropriations to objects, such as salary increase and new salaries not contemplated by the Legislature. We favor legislation requiring all receipts to be paid directly into the State Treasury and all disbursements to be made directly from the Treasury and only upon the warrant of the Comptroller, with the further provision that appropriations shall be used only for the specific purpose for which made and shall remain in the State Treasury until so used.

We favor such adequate appropriations for the public schools as are necessary to provide competent teachers for all schools for the full school year of nine months and to offer clean and healthful school facilities to every child in Maryland.

The Republican party urges for our various institutions and departments the return to the system of unpaid boards of our best men and women wherever possible.

No definite or fixed plan has been adopted for future State road construction, although the original plan was practically completed more than five years ago by Senator Weller, as chairman of the State Roads Commission. A definite program for at least five years' construction should be adopted and the State should lend every effort, by way of counsel and engineering advice to the various boards of County Commissioners, in order that the county road system may be advantageously fitted into the general State road system. We favor the principal of the State's bearing the cost of the construction of those portions of its arterial road system.

Would Reduce Auto Tax

We favor the elimination of the special tax on men who earn their daily bread by driving automobiles. This is an occupation tax and wholly untair. We also favor such reciprocity with District of Columbia as will preserve the State revenue, but do away with the present annoying two-tag system. We favor a reduction or elimination, of the title fee for automobiles, which is out of all proportion to the actual cost or value of the service rendered.

The Democratic party in this State proposes reorganization of the State's government and now finds that it can reduce expenses more than $500,000 per annum. This is a direct confession that during the last 20 years it has wasted $10,000,000 of public funds. And the first fiscal year of Governor Ritchie's administration shows an increase of 50 per cent. in the appropriation for the Governor over those of the last year of his predecessor.

Our party, though prepared to offer a complete and constructive program of its own, will support any measures presented, whatever the source, which are for the benefit of this State and its people.

In 1916 the Republican minority in the House of Delegates, under the able leadership of our present candidate for State Comptroller, Senator Oliver Metzerott, rescued the Budget Amendment, which was a Democratic platform pledge about to be shipwrecked in a sea of Democratic dissension, and forced its passage.

For Disabled Veterans

11. The glorious sacrifice and services of our soldiers and sailors in the great war should remain fresh in the minds of the people. The Republican party will insist upon speedy, sympathetic and adequate relief to the disabled and ever present recollection of all those who served.

The party suggests the propriety of marking the spots in France where Maryland regiments fought and died. There should be simple but permanent tablets at Montfaucon, at Belleau Hill, at Molleville Farm, to show the world that these places were wrested from the enemy by Maryland men.

12. The Republican party renews its pledge of sincere and unselfish interest in the permanent welfare of labor. Conditions in the State and Nation, in the matter of unemployment, have become acute as a natural aftermath of war, and every energy should be bent toward aiding the toiler

To Aid Miners

For 29 years the Democratic party has consistently refused to incorporate any legislation which would be of benefit to the many men who labor in the mining region of the State. Bills have been introduced, from time to time, but have always been defeated by Democratic Legislatures.

The Republican party pledges its united support to the end that proper mining laws be enacted.

13. We believe that the policy pursued by Democratic Governors of appointing police justices in Baltimore city as a reward for political services merits the serious attention of all right-thinking citizens. We emphatically denounce this practice since the inevitable result thereof is to make politics and not justice the decisive influence in cases tried before them. The only contact that many of our citizens have with courts and where justice is subordinated to politics, respect for law and our institutions is diminished. We believe that police justices should be removed from the realm of political influence. We further believe that the number of such justices in Baltimore city should be reduced; that each justice should be required to devote his whole and not a part of his time to the performance of his duties and be compensated accordingly; that we pledge ourselves to the enactment of appropriate legislation to effect this result.

14. We recommend to the people of the State the Honorable Oliver Metzerott, Republican candidate for Comptroller, whose fine record of achievement in the public service is a guarantee of his wise and efficient administration, when elected to this important office.

Our candidates for the General Assembly are worthy of public trust and confidence. They will, if elected, make possible the writing into law of the principles herein expressed, thereby affecting a real saving of many thousands of dollars with a consequent lowing of the burdens of taxation.

15. The workmen's compensation law has worked great good to the employer, without being a hardship upon the employee.

The Republican party guarantees to stand firm in the defense of this law and to do all things possible to increase its benefits to the workers.

A Beautiful Thought

There is robbery in every business except your own.

DO YOUR CHILDREN like Castor Oil?

then why make them take it? Why cling to the old idea that a medicine must be unpleasant in order to be good?

Miss Harriet Knight, Shopper, Says Her Work Is Interesting

For instance, last spring she sent hard candy and chocolates to China to some little American boys and girls—the family of an American Steamship Company agent.

She selects clothing, shoes and undergarments for an American Army Captain's family now stationed in the Philippines. And when she makes her selections for the Philippines, she has to remember that any other sort than canvas shoes will mould—on account of the climate. The clothing must be of cotton, too, for the same reason, as well as because it is cool to wear.

Then there are the Maryland friends of Hochschild, Kohn & Co., who have moved to other sections of the country. Miss Knight says she receives shopping requests from Portland, Oregon, from Seattle, Washington, from army posts in New Mexico and Texas, and from winter resorts in Florida and California.

Miss Knight cordially invites you to make use of her personal shopping service—she will shop with you or for you, as you wish.

Messages to Seekers of Success

Luck and Lack

Don't trust to luck. Luck is untrustworthy. Systematic, scientific striving for any goal is far more likely to bring you success than any mere faith in your success.

Just as changing a single letter changes "Luck" to "Lack," so will the reverses of a single day change plenty to want. But you can insure yourself against this by building your success on the habit of saving.

Save and Win

Be well dressed. Make friends. Increase your influence in your community. Enjoy the respect of all your associates.

These things do not come to those who trust to luck for them. Systematic saving will win them for you. Systematic saving will accumulate for you a small fortune that can safely and readily be expanded to a large one.
